Experienced School Administration Conquered Student Population Rise

In order to alleviate the overcrowded situation, a three shift system was instituted to insure an adequate number of classrooms. With a student population increased from 2700 to 3300, the faculty was expanded from 110 to 150 teachers.

Beginning at 7:30, 8:30, and 9:30 a.m. and ending at 2:15, 3:15, and 4:15, the three shifts were assigned particular problems faced by the administration. Leonard Glazer, activities director, and Assistant Principal for Administration Frank Paskewich worked on the school activity program. Principal Clyde Crabtree and Assistant Principal for Guidance Mrs. Shirley Newman were concerned with communications and scheduling. Assistant Principals Helen Gwaltney and Arthur Smith were interested in the use of the library and instructional materials.

Office Help and Counseling Staffs Directed School Functions Smoothly

New to the guidance department were resource periods to help students behind in their studies and those experiencing difficulty in self-discipline. According to Assistant Principal for Guidance Mrs. Shirley Newman, the program proved successful, and will be continued in future years. Students also found this program to be beneficial and expressed desire to have it continued.

Statistics on graduates of the school beginning with the class of 1961 were compiled to obtain information as to number attending college, both four and two years, number in the armed services, business schools, number of graduates married, and those working.

Offered by the department was a series of six seminars to acquaint the college-bound with the advantages of higher education. First speaker of the program was Dr. Rolf Rotty, professor of science, Tulane University.

Independent Thinking Encouraged In All Language Arts Curriculum

Language Arts guided the development of each student's independent thinking with the study of literature. With instruction students further developed compositional and grammatical skills. English students studied not only American themes but learned to study people as a whole on a universal basis.

Tenth grade TV classes were scheduled two days a week; regular classroom discussions and testing occurred the other two days alternating on Wednesdays. Juniors experienced team teaching or regular English classes which emphasized an intensive American Studies Program, researching the American man and his changed society. The introduction of the Petersen method of expository writing was given to juniors to be continued as seniors.

With emphasis on composition and reading English literature, seniors began their last year of preparation for college. George Bernard Shaw's Pygmalion, William Shakespeare's Hamlet and Macbeth, reflected a more mature level of reading. Honors English classes of all levels provided a more projected curriculum of reading and writing.

Senior Joe Potts paused to relax while reading Ibsen's works. Groups in Honor English classes discussed conflicts outdoors.

Mr. David Osman lead discussion of American Revolutionary War period in relation to material read in the junior grade text of American literature.

Teachers in Native Costume Brought Old World to Language Department

Insight into the culture as well as the language of different countries was a goal of the curriculum of the foreign language department.

Audio-lingual prerecorded tape lessons were utilized by teachers to practice sounds and pronunciations. This method encouraged students to speak the language rather than just memorize sounds and words. As a result, less time was spent on prepared recitations and more on actual application of the language to everyday conversations.

Foreign language curriculum emphasized modern culture, history, and the literature of outstanding authors, both past and present.

In October, language teachers donned native costumes for students to observe and presented a new and interesting perspective in foreign language teaching.

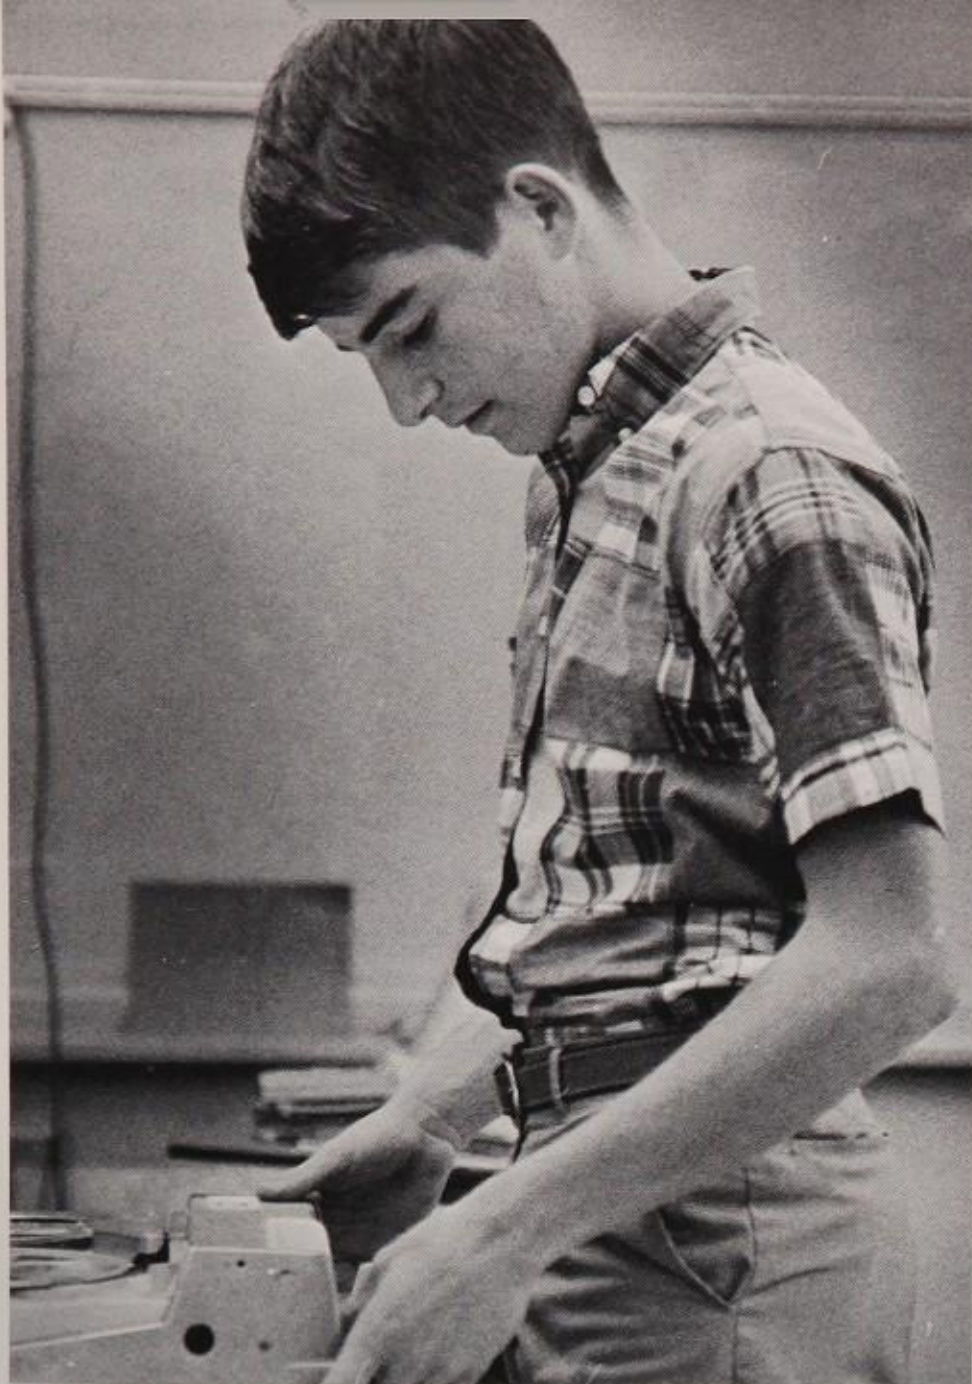

Mr. Fred Smith previewed the prerecorded ALM tape lessons. Tapes instructed French grammar, pronunciation and comprehension drill.

Spanish Teacher Arthur Alvarez worked with students on first level translation.

Student's Individuality and Talent Developed in Creative Art Courses

Through practical application of subject matter offered by creative art courses, high school students gained an insight into the refinements of our society. Curriculum included art, music, drama, and journalism. Due to the demand for these courses, each subject area added another instructor.

Challenging the student's talent and individuality, the art department provided painting, sketching, etching and drawing instruction. Academic courses, art appreciation and the newly initiated humanities program, prepared college bound students with historical and cultural art material. The music department included band instruction and chorus. Advanced Mixed Chorus, Singing Men, and Vocal Ensemble were part of the extensive music curriculum. For the second year a music theory course was offered to preorientated music students.

Providing the student with drama instruction and acting experience was the goal in drama classes. In journalism, practical experience was gained in publishing the newspaper and yearbook. A beginning course was offered to prepare prospective staff members.

Mrs. Marlene Lindquist listened as Merrily Besvinick explained her linoleum print. Art students entered local and national contests.

Library Bore the Brunt of Influx; State Wide Accreditation Achieved

In its second year of operation, the new library faced serving 3200 Palmetto students and providing research materials for the South Campus of Miami-Dade Junior College. To meet the demands of the increased population and state wide high school accreditation, the library added almost 1000 new volumes including encyclopedias and a complete set of Biographies for Young People. These additions were purchased through the united efforts of students and parents of the community who supported the Annual Book Drive.

Air conditioning and wall-to-wall carpeting furnished the physical atmosphere conducive to academic work. Independent study carrels allowed students to work with a minimum of distractions. In conference rooms adjoining the library, teachers and students discussed materials privately. All subject area teachers were encouraged to make use of facilities.

An important aim of the library personnel meant making the library accessible to as many students as long as possible. An extension of hours permitted students of all shifts to work from the opening of school at 7:00 a.m. through the school day and return for evening study until 9:00 p.m.

Students consulted the periodical corner. The selection included Seventeen, Popular Science, Saturday Review, Newsweek and Atlantic.

Pupils of Varied Abilities Found Mathematics Program Challenging

Introduced by the mathematics department was a new course for seniors who wanted a fourth year of mathematics, but not calculus or other advanced courses. Mathematics 5 included modern algebra, statistics and probability.

At least two years of math were required for graduation and students going on to college were advised to take four years. Among the courses offered were basic math, general math 1 and 2, algebra 1 and 2, plane geometry, intermediate algebra, modern geometry, calculus and trigonometry.

Students took the annual advanced placement test in May for the National Math Exam and for good students, a satisfactory score meant college credits in calculus. Students demonstrated ability to obtain superior scores in this exam.

Advanced Science Students Prepared For College Entrance Examinations

Preparing students for a complex and scientific world constituted the goal of the science department. All students were required to complete one year biology taught by television. Other courses offered in the curriculum were chemistry, chem study and honors biology, chemistry and physics.

Classes in the new air-conditioned wing made learning an enjoyable experience. Built-in gas jets for bunsen burners, proper storage space for lab equipment and modern facilities assisted teachers in instruction. Advanced science courses were recommended for college bound students in order to provide a background for freshman chemistry and natural science courses required by most colleges and universities. Afternoon tutoring sessions were offered to prepare students for college entrance examination boards.

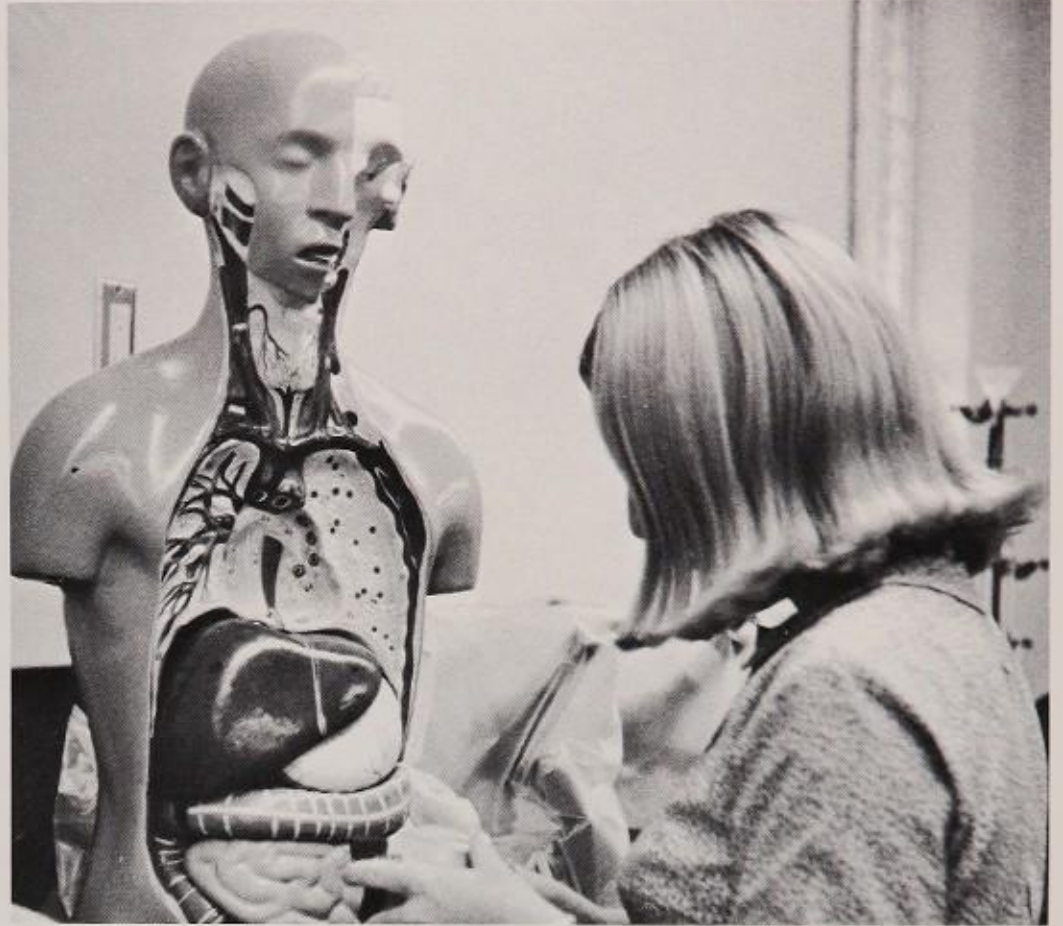

Randy Cowdim weighed out a sample metal in a crucible. Chemistry and chem study classes analyzed metals over bunsen burners.

Kathy Reubert mixed calcium hydroxide with hydro sulfuric acid during the chemistry labs conducted. Results were recorded.

Gary Carlem examined a snake specimen preserved in liquid. Students dissected live frogs to observe their respiration.

Three Humanities Studies Initiated, Senior Government Courses Altered

Introduced by the social studies department was a new course in humanities providing in-depth studies of man's culture emphasizing music, history and literature.

Advanced students of American history took a course in library self education. Independent study made the student determine what and how much he learned and made him responsible for the extent to which materials used would be applied. Ten juniors were involved in the program under the direction of Mr. Earl Orme, social studies department head.

Study of U. S. government and economics was updated through the use of audio-visual aids. A program of lectures and films were presented in the air-conditioned lecture room. The course was designed to inform and teach the workings of other political philosophies and to compare them with our own. The course had three units consisting of government, economics, and communism.

Business Skills Prepared Students For Future Role in Business World

Air conditioned typing and bookkeeping classes provided business education instructors with a better atmosphere in which to teach. Quiet rooms allowed students to concentrate on their studies.

Employed on a wide scale basis were electric typewriters and ditto and mimeograph machines. Teaching emphasized practical instruction and learning was measured by achievement in skills. Courses offered to all grade levels, some with prerequisites, included bookkeeping, business math, business English, recordkeeping, shorthand, clerical office practice and typing.

Typing and shorthand courses offered certificates for excellence in speed and accuracy records at timed intervals.

Home Economics and Industrial Arts Gave Students Practical Experience

Home Economics was concerned with teaching girls the meaning of a home and family and the necessary elements of running and caring for a household. Each girl was required to take one year of general home economics and could take advanced courses in food preparation, furniture arrangement and sewing. All courses combined a practical use of knowledge learned with methods described in textbooks.

Industrial Arts not only taught wood or metal working, but allowed students to interpret the significance of industrial arts in their lives and see the effect these skills have on the people around them. Students were taught the role of architectural and technical engineering and the ability to perceive their own places in the future of industry. To graduate all boys were required to take an industrial arts course.

Physical Education Classes Helped Alleviate Overcrowded Conditions

With the introduction of the three shift school day, the physical education department bore the brunt of the need to provide more space within the buildings. A third year of physical education was required for all juniors. The coaching staff was enlarged and major improvements of the facilities such as the rearrangement of the basketball courts were made, in order to utilize the available space more effectively.

Among the activities offered to the students were football, baseball, wrestling, basketball and volleyball for the boys. Modern dance, badminton, trampoline gymnastics and softball became available to girls' classes.

All of the courses were designed to give maximum exercise, in line with the presidential physical fitness program, and at the same time, to afford recreation.

Miss Nonie Greene followed the rhythm of the music as she watched her advanced modern dance students practicing one of the basic drills.

Mrs. Patricia David, girls' physical education instructor, organized several teams for an intramural round-robin basketball competition.

Seniors of '66 Proved Their Spirit By Skits and Talent at Stunt Nite

"There's no spirit like our spirit and we seniors should know," sang the seniors on October 14 in the opening scene of Senior Stunt Nite. Under the direction of Mrs. Carla Harvey, seniors performed in individual and group presentations.

Talent ranged from a folk singing group to a hillbilly band. The Townsmen, a group of Palmetto students, sang popular folk songs. Dancing was featured in Jazz versus Ballet and in the portrayal of a scarecrow.

An exclusive new game 43 squamish man, was presented on the stage for the first time at Palmetto. A satire on a football game, squamish involved 43 people who ended the game in an all-out attack with no holds barred.

To the tune of "There's no business like show business," seniors ended the show with a theme song. "Stunt Nite was for all of us a happy date . . . for seniors 66."

Head Majorette Karin Ostlund portrayed a scarecrow in an original song and dance routine for the night.

Jane Daly, Jerry May, and Ken Pugh were emcees of the production for the class. In addition to introductions, they performed in skits.

The unique 43 man squamish game was explained and demonstrated on stage for first time at Stunt Nite, ending in an attack by teams.

SENIORS EXPRESSED THEIR ENTHUSIASM BY SINGING, "THERE'S NO SPIRIT LIKE OUR SPIRIT" AT THE OPENING OF THE SHOW.

As members of a hillbilly band, Carol Monroe and Colleen Osborne sang the Mountain Dew song. The girls accompanied themselves with native handcrafted instruments.

Homecoming Court Elected to Reign Over All Thanksgiving Festivities

Elected 1965 Homecoming Queen by the student body, Sue O'Connor and her court presided over the sixth annual week-end of activities. Although the announcement of Queen was not made until Panther Prowl, the entire court rode in the afternoon parade. The girls were presented at the Thanksgiving Day game. Culminating the festivities, the queen and her court presided over the Homecoming Dance at the Everglades Hotel.

Classes and Clubs Entered Floats And Cars in Sixth Annual Parade

Homecoming 1965 officially began Wednesday afternoon with the parade. Club and class representatives were dismissed early to bring their floats and decorated cars for placement and competition in the parade. Winning first place was the senior class float.

Band members, along with majorettes, Chatonettes, and two Panthers, lead decorated cars and floats. Starting at school, the parade route traveled to Suniland and returned to school. Presentation of the Homecoming court concluded the parade.

Following the procession, Girls' Council presented a dance for all students on the Senior patio. A roast beef dinner was sponsored by the Boosters' Club in the evening. Activity continued with the Panther Prowl at eight o'clock.

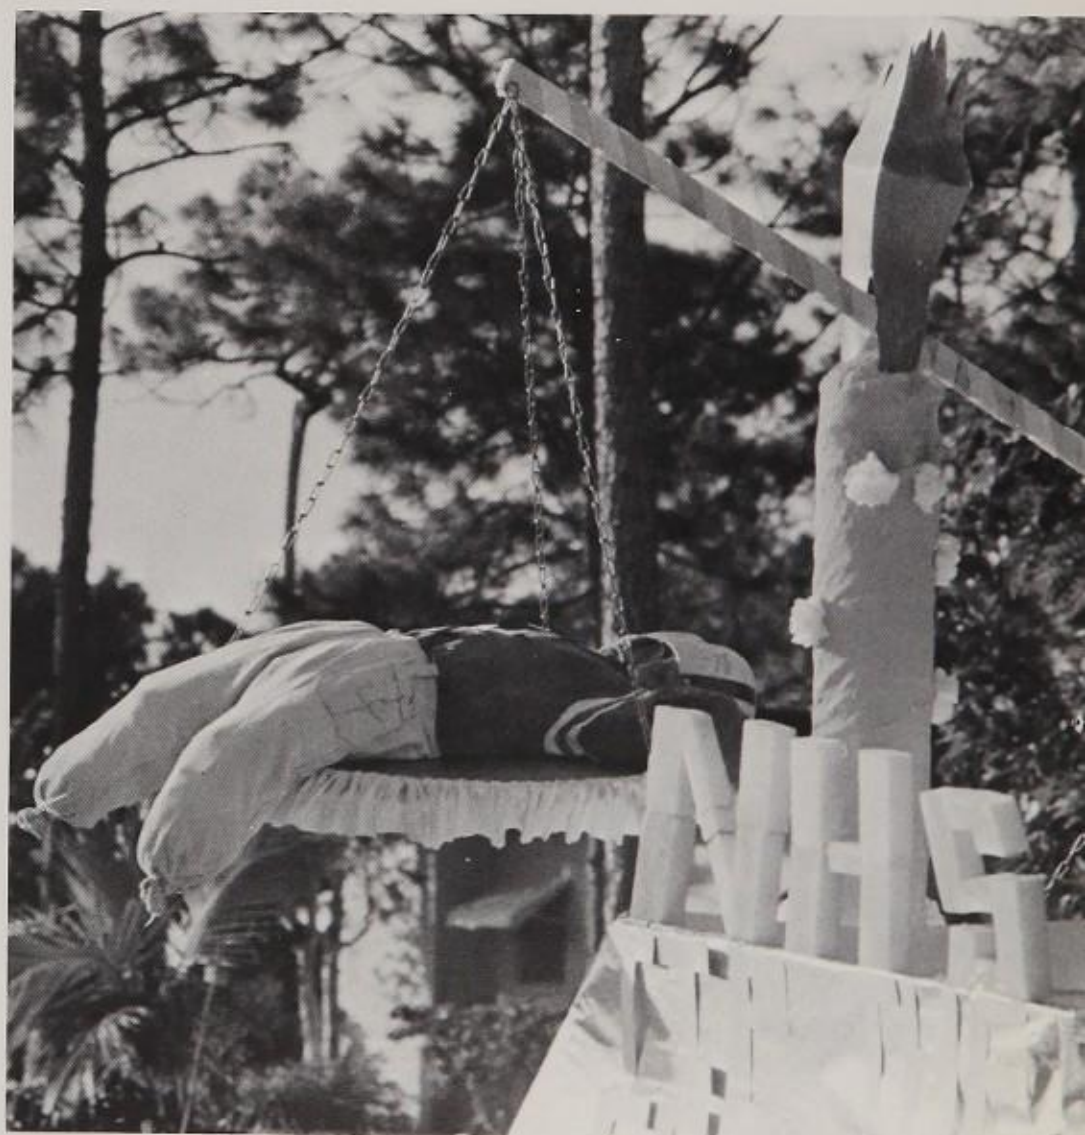

Amy Poteat portrayed a Panther football player to "Stampede South Dade" for the Les Jeunes Filles float in the parade.

DAVE SIBLEY TENDED TO RIDERS R. OLSON, R. FRANK, V. MANOS, T. PATTERSON, AND B. KENDALL.

Earning first place award in parade competition was the senior class' float "Books of Knowledge" centered on the motto, Vis Per Scientiam.

"Tip the Rebels" was the theme of the float National Honor Society entered for competition. A Panther football player subdued a Rebel.

Successful Panther Prowl Directed By Members of Inter Club Council

Homecoming's Panther Prowl started after a roast beef dinner sponsored by Booster Club in the school cafeteria. When students filled the auditorium for a South Dade pep rally, varsity cheerleaders led students in rousing Beat South Dade cheers. Coach Gene Gibson introduced the football team which was to beat the Rebels the next morning at Harris Field.

Following the pep rally, Student Council Vice President Bill Atwood emceed the Panther Prowl. Clubs and organizations presented skits which had been rehearsed for weeks. Judges rated the junior class skit the winning one. Interact's spoof on rival Key Club placed second in the judging. Although all skits were based on different themes, they had the same goal in mind, "Beat South Dade."

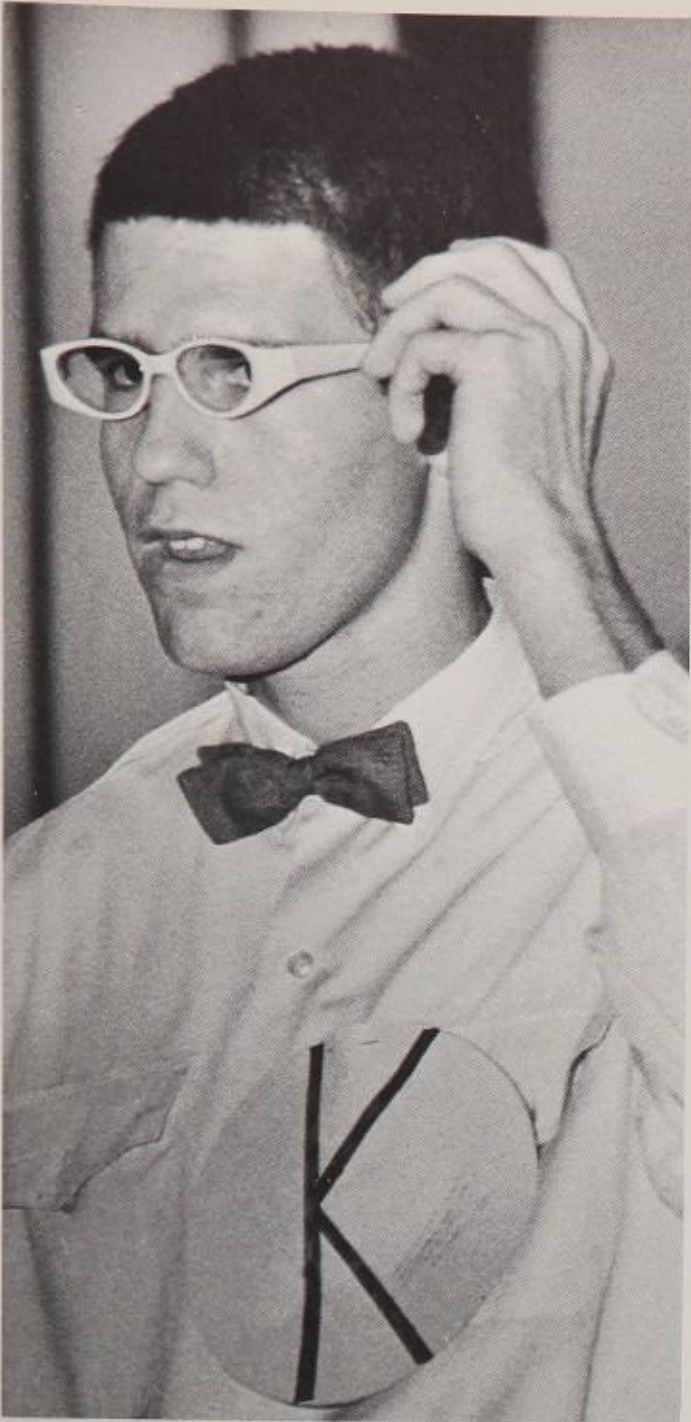

Excitement of the night came to a climax when Student Council President Hank Street and Senior Class Treasurer Sue Murphy announced and crowned Homecoming Queen Sue O'Connor.

Bill Atwood, Prowl emcee, glanced at evening's schedule. Coordinator and announcer of activities, he kept presentations running smoothly.

Debbie Thomas, explaining her problem, talked to "Queen for a South Dade Homecoming" emcee Mark Peebles in the senior skit presentation.

Kurt Mulson adjusted his glasses for the Interact skit spoofing Key, arch-rival of the service club.

Senior Sherri Gillis flexed her muscles in the Paramedical Club skit at Prowl. Entries showed Palmetto defeating South Dade.

AT HOMECOMING AND STUNT NITE, ADRIAN WALKER PARTICIPATED IN THE SENIOR CLASS SKITS.

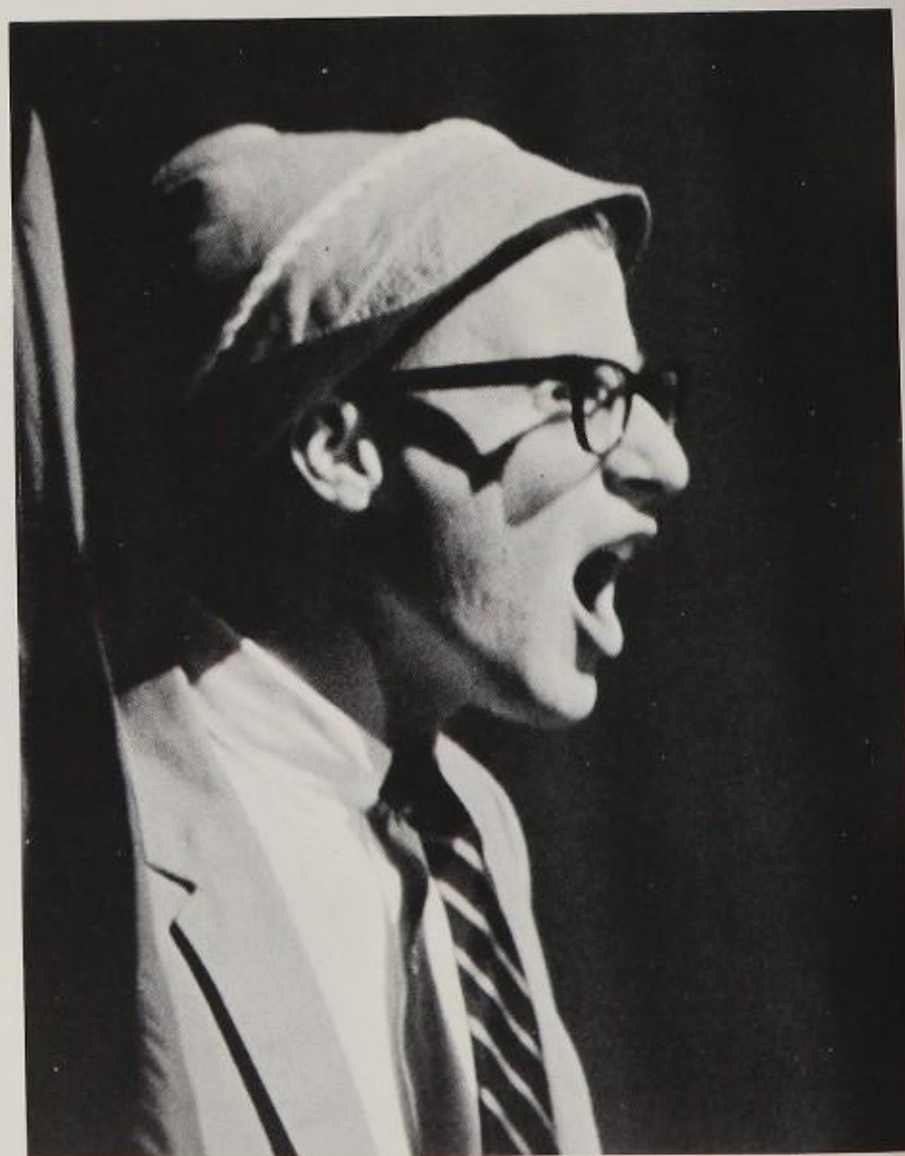

DAVE DUPREE, CLIFF KUNDE, LARRY KENT, CLARK BEGG AND MIKE BLAIR PREDICTED TEAM VICTORY.

Pupils Showed Their School Spirit By Supporting Offered Activities

Beginning with pep rallies and football games in the fall, students supported the school's full activity program. In November, Homecoming brought spirit to a peak with the parade, Panther Prowl, game, and dance.

December found Palmetto students in the marching band, majorettes, and Chatonettes appearing in the King Orange Bowl Parade, game and fireworks' pageant. Spring was highlighted by the Second Annual Band Jamboree. Palmetto students supported booths at the carnival and helped the band to pay for their uniforms. Graduation exercises and the prom culminated the year's activities.

Hank Street, Student Council president, reflected Panther spirit. During football season he directed all early morning pep rallies.

After Rigorous Practice Sessions Junior Varsity Cheered For Cagers

Led by Andrea Geist, junior varsity cheerleaders directed crowd enthusiasm at JV basketball games. After two weeks of tryouts starting after football season, the new squad was selected. Ratings were based on smile, jumps, and appearance. Over 100 girls tried out for the ten positions.

Junior varsity cheerleaders included Connie Campbell, Chris Criswell, Deena Dunford, Sharon Ford, Kathy Harris, Susie Hill, Robin Horder, co-captain, Andrea Geist, captain, Ginny Smith and Sara Straight.

Junior Connie Campbell paused between cheers to watch as the junior varsity players lost the ball to the opponent.

Robin Horder, in her second year of junior varsity cheerleading was caught gazing at the scoreboard as JV cagers added two more points to the score.

CHEERING SQUAD WAS S. FORD, D. DUNFORD, S. HILL, A. GEIST, R. HORDER, C. CAMPBELL, K. HARRIS, S. STRAIGHT AND C. CRISWELL.

Palmetto Cheerleaders Spearheaded Panthers' Spirit and Sportsmanship

Captained by Wendy Tichenor the varsity cheerleaders led the Panther spirit throughout the season and guided the students toward better sportsmanship. Leading the students with rousing pep and fight songs and the traditional Palmetto clap, were Cindy Murray, co-captain, Diane Taylor, Cathy Thomas, Cheryl Carmichael, Jane Daly, Christine Gergen, Jane Williams, and June McElmoyle. Patsy Snelling was the only junior on an otherwise all-senior squad.

Judged on poise, ability, smile, and personality, the 11 varsity cheerleaders were chosen last spring. The squad cheered at all football and basketball games, pep rallies, in the mornings before games, and at Homecoming.

At the beginning of last year, the cheerleaders sponsored a junior varsity clinic to instruct sophomores and juniors trying out for the squad.

Varsity Cheerleader Christine Gergen intensely watched the Norland game and was alarmed when the Vikings made another touchdown.

JUNE McELMOYLE LED THE LINE OFF THE FIELD AS THE CHEERLEADERS BEGAN THE SPIRIT CLAP BEFORE EACH GAME.

CAPTAIN WENDY TICHENOR AND JUNE McELMOYLE WERE SADDENED WHEN THE TEAM LOST THE BALL.

Cathy Thomas eyed another touchdown resulting in a win for our team.

Cheerleaders bowed to the Palmetto team after gridders scored a touchdown at the Curley game. This touchdown and two others added up to a victory for the Panthers over the Curley Knights.

MAJORETTE CORPS included; kneeling, Patty Andrews and Ellen Zank, standing, Bobbie LaPerche, Martha Henry, Juliann Kaiser, Karin Ostlund, Marikay McCarty, Pat McLaughlin, and Deedee Duckworth.

'B' Corps Majorettes were: Laura Partridge, Madolyn Palmer, Pat Ryan, and Jean Hornbuckle. Carol Stockhausen was captain of the 'B' Corps.

Quarterback Karin Ostlund practiced passing for the Powder Puff football game. The majorettes defeated the Chatonettes, 18-0.

Appearance of Pantherettes Added Color to Field at Halftime Shows

Pantherettes, directed by Karin Ostlund, provided audiences at all football games with versatile halftime shows. The corps originated routines to coordinate with the band's theme shows. With special costumes, the girls twirled to Al Hirt's Cotton Candy, Java, and Sugar Lips with circus and patriotic themes. The band traditionally marched in the Orange Bowl Parade and game. In the spring, corps members assisted band members in sponsoring the Second Annual Band Jamboree. For the first time, the majorettes selected a sweetheart, senior Cliff Kunde.

Corps members battled an 18-0 defeat over the previously victorious Chatonettes in the Powder Puff Football Game. Head coaches Charlie Richards and Joe Vick taught plays, assisted by Mike Gleman, Don McCormick and Fred Theil.

MEMBER OF THE CORPS FOR THREE YEARS, PANTHERETTE HEAD MAJORETTE KARIN OSTLUND, SERVED AS CAPTAIN OF THE 'A' CORPS.

CHATONETTE MEMBERS BONNIE KNAPP, ADRIAN WALKER AND NANCY WILLIAMS SALUTED WHILE THE BAND PLAYED THE ALMA MATER.

Chatonettes Performed As Precision Dance, Drill Team Along With Band

Marching in all football half-time shows with the Panther Marching 100 band, the Chatonettes brought variety to the field. The only group of its kind in Dade County, they were a combination drill and dance team.

Under Captain Diane Smith and Lieutenants Molly Bunnell, Margee O'Donnell and Shelley Place, the girls learned original routines to accompany the music played by the band.

Chatonettes joined the band in the annual Panther homecoming parade. They marched in the King Orange Bowl Parade, Game and Fireworks' Pageant.

Other activities during the year for the Chatonettes included the Powder Puff game and band jamboree. Coached by John Brack and Steve Connell, the drill team was upset in their football game with the majorettes. All corps members participated in the Second Annual Band Jamboree by contributing their time at the food booths.

CONCERT AND MARCHING BAND

DRUMMER MIKE SPARTI LEAFED THROUGH SHEET MUSIC PREPARING TO PERFORM AS THE CONCERT BAND PLAYED.

Drum major of the Marching 100 Panther Band, Senior Gary Capik directed music and led members during parades, at games, and other appearances.

Mr. Joseph Bragg, concert and marching band instructor, concentrated intensely and expressed the music as he was conducting.

Panther Concert, Marching Bands Participated in Local Festivities

Halftime presentations, concerts and the Jamboree placed foremost on the schedule of band members. For the fifth year, the Panther Marching 100 entered the King Orange Bowl Parade as one of the 30 high school bands to march in front of floats. They performed at the Orange Bowl half-time show on New Year's and the Fireworks' Pageant. Raising funds was a goal of the band and parents' association as they sponsored the Second Annual Band Jamboree February 11-12. Band members, including majorettes and Chatonettes, jointly sponsored 25 booths for student and family amusement.

ALLEN DIETRICH, MARCHING BAND MEMBER, STUDIED HIS SHEET MUSIC WHILE PLAYING THE ALMA MATER.

Band Rehearsal Three Days a Week Contributed to Co-ordinated Shows

Success of halftime presentations was due to ardent practice during football season by marching 100 Band members. A regular class period daily allotted time to learn the medley of songs which created colorful themes. Afternoons on the athletic field band members, majorettes, and Chatonettes practiced formations to accompany the music. Al Hirt's Java, Cotton Candy and Sugar Lips provided imaginative dances and routines for the majorettes. Patriotic and carnival themes were also used at halftime shows.

Tuba players Robert Carlon and George Kenney paused to relax during afternoon band practice. Rehearsal three days a week was mandatory.

Drum Major Gary Capik watched the scoreboard during a game and directed the band in spirit clap and cheers.

At the Concert Band's winter program, the White Band, beginning band, was presented and conducted by Mr. Bragg. Members moved up to the advanced band after improvement.

Community, School Engagements Filled Choral Ensembles' Schedule

Triple Trio and Double Quartet followed a full schedule of singing engagements during the school year. Participating in the Singing Christmas Tree in December highlighted their appearances. Films from portions of the Singing Christmas Tree were shown on Channel 7 and Channel 10.

Entertainment for civic and community organizations was provided by the ensembles, as they sang for Kiwanis and Rotary clubs, Women's clubs throughout the city, and for the Surf Club on Miami Beach. DQ and Triple Trio joined the chorus in presenting programs for the school.

Chorus Participates in Orange Bowl Pageant and Singing Christmas Tree

New innovations as well as traditional events highlighted Concert Chorus activities. On December 21, the chorus participated in the first Singing Christmas Tree in Dade County Auditorium. Wearing green robes borrowed from the University of Miami, members formed a tree 25 feet high and 24 feet across the base. The concert was previewed at school and televised by local stations WLBW and WCKT.

Concert Chorus again participated in the singing of the Messiah with Southwest High School and Coral Gables High School. Members sang at the Eastern Pageant at Tropical Park and the Orange Bowl. A Panorama of American Music was presented in the Bayfront Park Bandshell. Under directors Doris Pomerko and Dale Willoughby, the chorus sang for music clubs, local churches, and country clubs.

Representatives of Concert Chorus, Girls' Chorus, Singing Men, Triple Trio, and Double Quartet rode in the parade.

GIRLS' CHORUS AND SINGING MEN

The Singing Men participated in the annual Spring Concert for the second year in a row.

Chatonette Captain Diane Smith worked the required number of hours at the food booth sponsored by majorette and Chatonette members.

Advance Preparations Contributed To Success of Band Spring Carnival

Band Parents' Association sponsored the second annual Band Jamboree to raise funds for uniforms. Circus tents housed 25 variety booths, as preparations for the event were initiated by parents of marching, concert and beginning band members. The weekend carnival set parents and students working six months before the jamboree. Amusements were provided for all who attended. Students attended an informal dance Friday night while parents browsed through second hand items at the White Elephant Sale and food bargains at the Country Store. Children flocked to fishing booth and ring tosses. Cotton candy, popcorn, hot dogs, pizzas, drinks, and candied apples were consumed by the bushel.

BAND MEMBERS WATCHED AS MARTY TRUSS FASTENED PLASTIC TO THE TUB USED FOR THE DUNKING TUB.

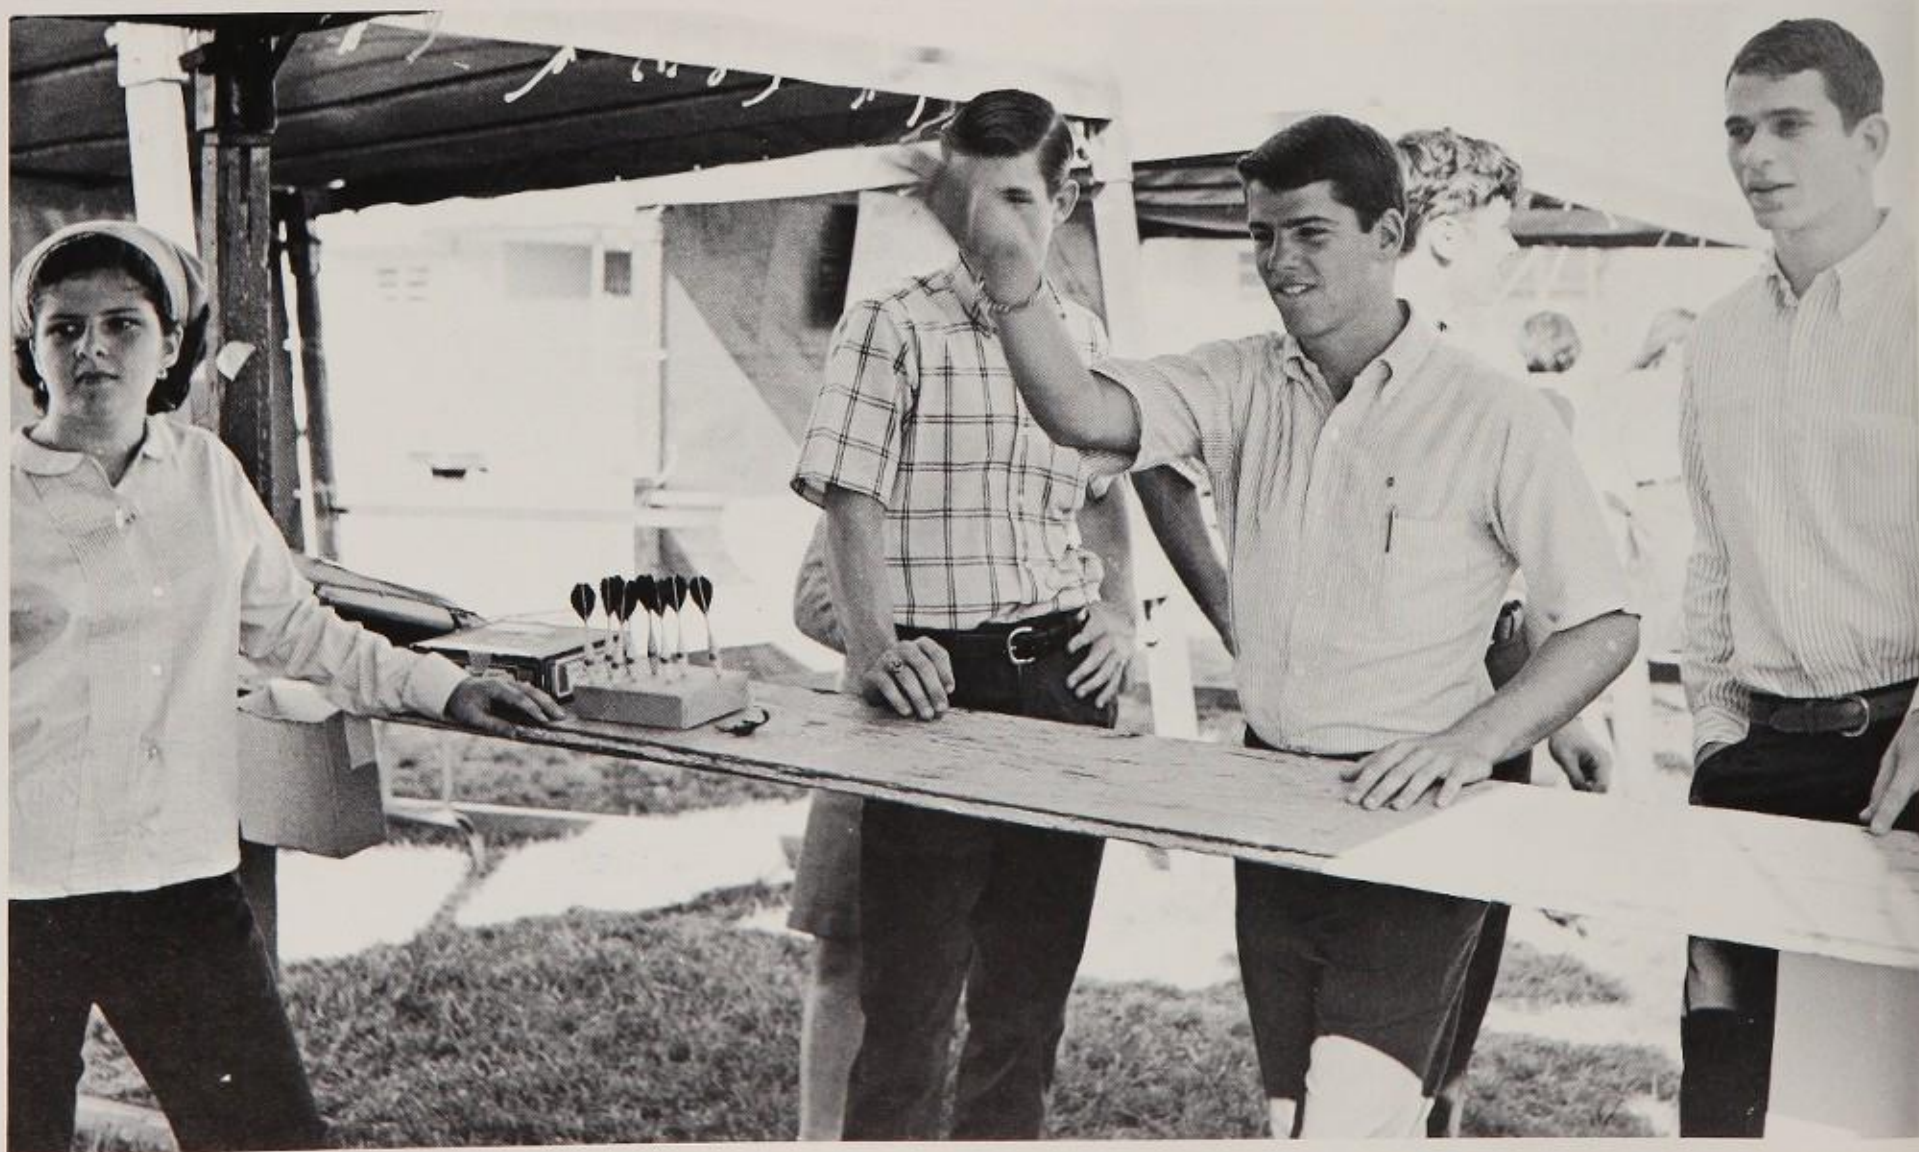

BAND JAMBOREE

Dave Waddell and Debbie Pearson came to the Jamboree to support the band and to enjoy amusements and games.

Students tested their skill to win prizes at booths like the flame shoot. They patronized game booths, food booths, white elephant and country store.

WITH THE FESTIVE SPIRIT OF THE JAMBOREE, RAY MCCOY THREW A DART ATTEMPTING TO BURST A BALLOON AND WIN A PRIZE.

LIFTING SEVEN-UP BOTTLES TO AN UPRIGHT POSITION PROVIDED A CHALLENGE FOR STUDENTS TO ATTEMPT.

Diane Taylor purchased a coke, concentrating on her pizza. Drinks, hamburgers, cotton candy and pizza were among food sold at booths.

Band Jamboree Supplied Two Days Of Student and Family Amusement

Games of chance and skill, carnival booths, and food booths were combined in the Second annual Band Jamboree on the athletic field. Students and their families enjoyed the February 11 weekend activities.

Barker George Taylor kept activity going throughout the fair with announcements and records. A fish pond, record booth, and cake booth were offered. For variety, Les Jeunes Filles provided a marriage booth complete with preacher, and Echo members read fortunes.

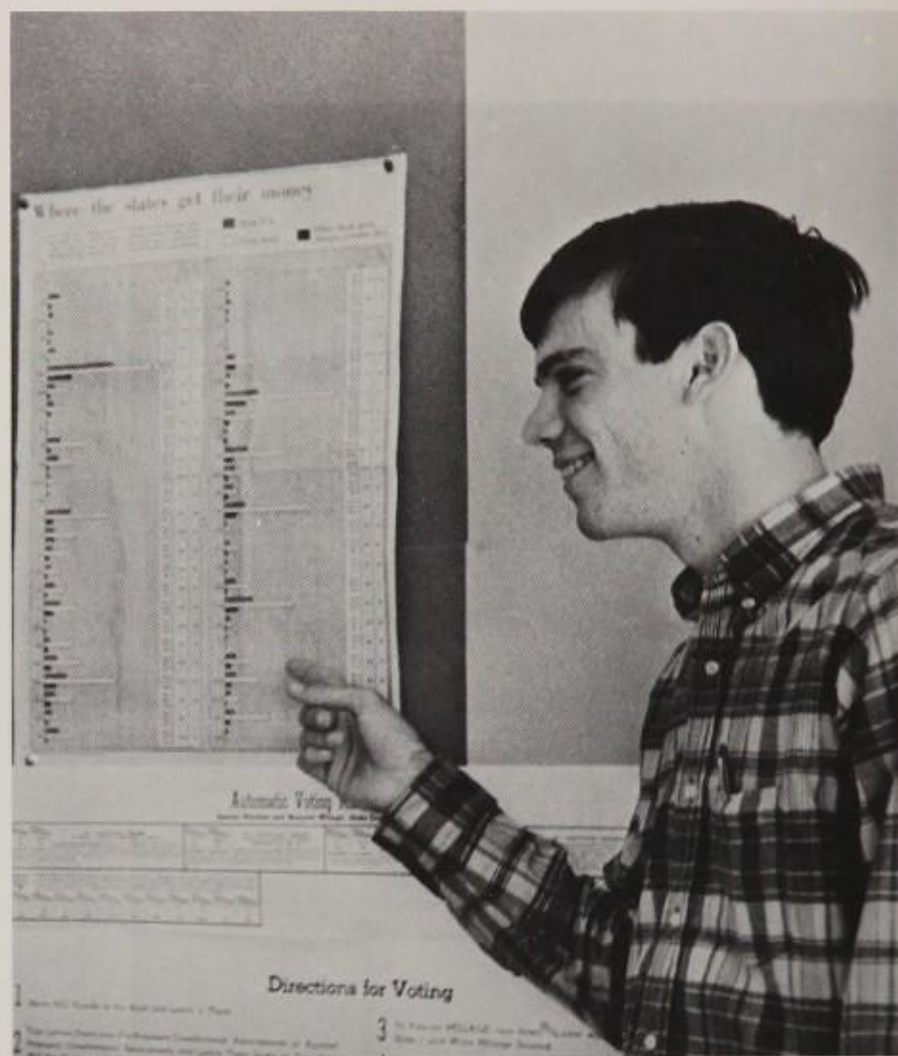

Continuous activity was offered during the weekend. Friday night a sock-hop with three live bands was sponsored in the cafeteria. Profits from the carnival were used to finish payments on band uniforms.

Largest Delegation from Palmetto Attend Annual Mock State at FSU

Palmetto's representatives to Boys' State boasted the second largest delegation in the state. Eight boys traveled to the mock state government meeting in Tallahassee during the summer of 1965. Immediately following Boys' State, Sharon Childers and Sharon Morrow attended a week of Girls' State, where they were required to attend a pre-conference orientation and review of civics and government.

A week of mock legislation was filled with political campaigning for state office in the executive, judicial, and legislative branches of the government. Bill Atwood was elected a senator and Dennis Boothe, Scott Koeppel, Victor Manos, Jerry May, and Hank Street were elected to the House of Representatives. Lane Kauffmann was Palmetto's only delegate from the winning party.

Staters attended sessions in the chambers of the Florida Senate and House of Representatives and roomed in dormitories at Florida State University.

Victor Manos attended a government orientation for Boys' State. Conference members elected Victor a representative to the House.

SENIOR JOE POTTS SERIOUSLY PONDERED THE OUTCOME OF A PALMETTO-GABLES TRACK AND FIELD MEET.

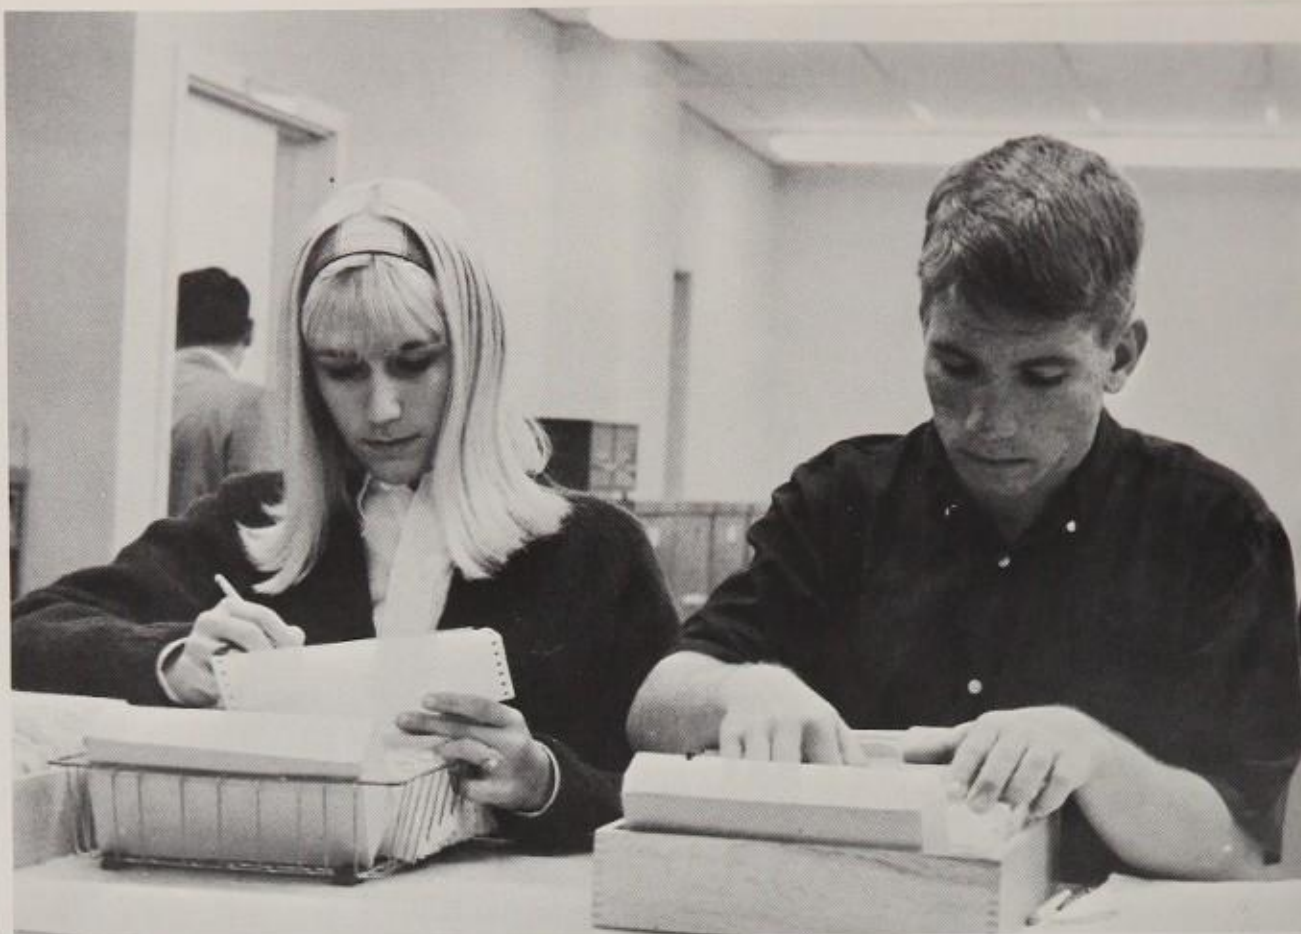

As a senior privilege card holder, Lane Kauffmann was able to study in any area of the school. Privilege cards were initiated this year.

Fun-Loving Teenagers Were Hidden Underneath a Mask of Seriousness

Beneath the serious exterior of the average student was a fun-loving, high-spirited teenager. Modern dances mirrored creative talent and unleashed tensions. Pressure to be accepted to a college, created by college boards and for good grads, restricted students on weekdays. But on weekends, teenagers danced out their worries at sock hops after victorious games. Student felt great admiration for their classmates who received such awards as Hall of Fame for outstanding seniors. All classes aimed for the best they were capable of achieving.

OFFICE ASSISTANTS

LINDA WELCHIN AND WAYNE FIELDSA CHECKED SUBJECT SELECTION CARDS IN THE OFFICE.

Student Office assistants typed and mimeographed absentee sheets for teachers. They worked in guidance administration and the clinic.

Barbara Matthews called out names while Patty Boymer checked the day's absences. Students in study hall worked in administration office.

Attendance Office Assistant Bonnie Somberg awaited students seeking admission to class for tardiness and issued permits to leave school.

Office Trained Student Assistants To Administer Routine Staff Duties

Relieving the overworked secretarial staff, student office assistants performed minor administrative jobs. Scheduled all hours of the day, students were excused from study hall although each was allowed time to study during the office period.

Tasks included issuing permits to leave school with administrative consent and admits to class for tardy students. Assigned tasks required assistants to call students from class for guidance appointments. Assistants excused from homeroom collected absentee cards. The following period students distributed attendance sheets. Newcomers and visitors were escorted to class by workers. All assistants received experience similar to professional office work. Switchboard operators were offered jobs with the telephone company as full-time operators upon graduation.

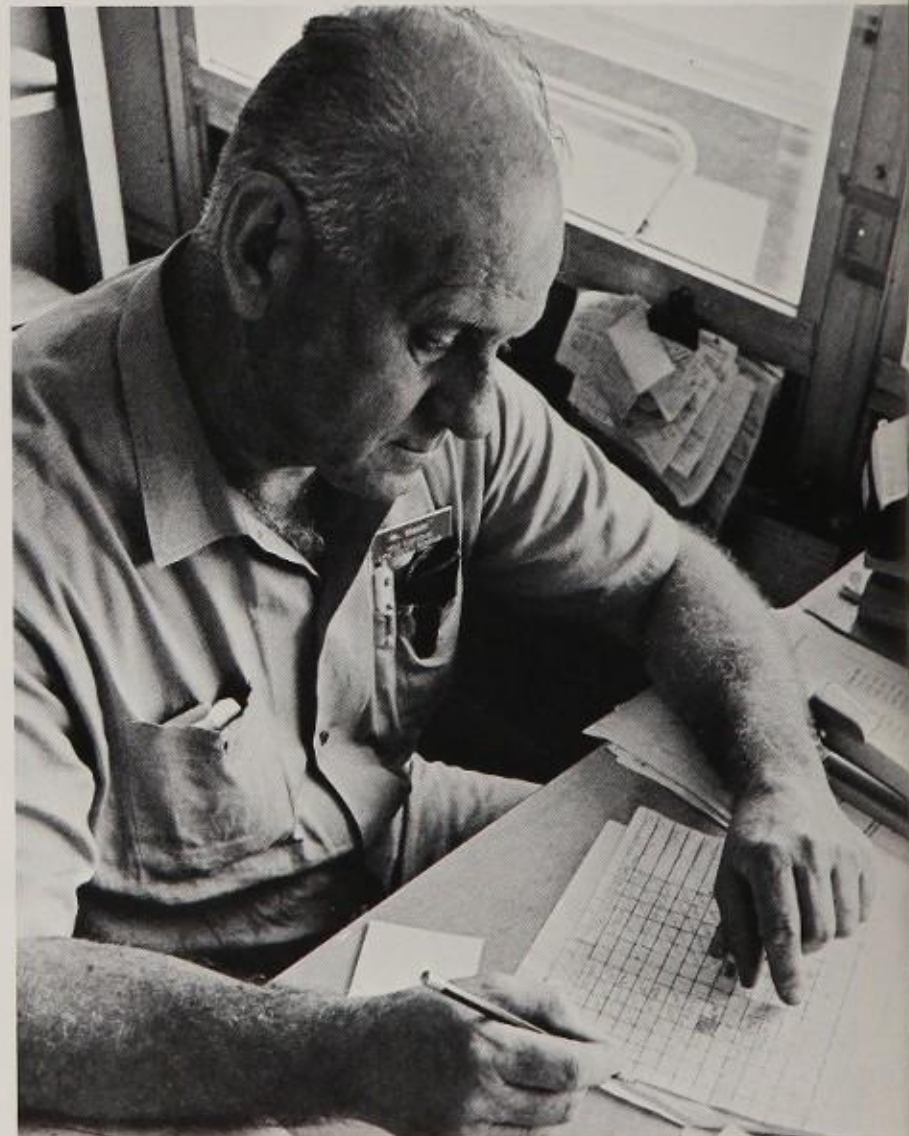

MAIN OFFICE ASSISTANTS SENIORS LINDA MARTIN AND SUE BERLIN AIDED SECRETARIES BY FILING PAPERS.

MRS. MARGARET HOWARD AND HER ASSISTANT COUNTED CAFETERIA RECEIPTS AFTER LUNCH HOUR.

Baking cakes, sugar and oatmeal cookies, and pies were included in cafeteria staff daily routine. Holidays, special foods, were served.

Mr. Adam Broadt, head custodian, checked the custodial schedule. It was his responsibility to oversee the cleaning of rooms.

Cleaning the automatic coffee pot was a cafeteria staff chore. Staff served teachers coffee and doughnuts in the teachers' lounge daily.

Providing a Better Atmosphere Was Custodial and Cafeteria Staff Goal

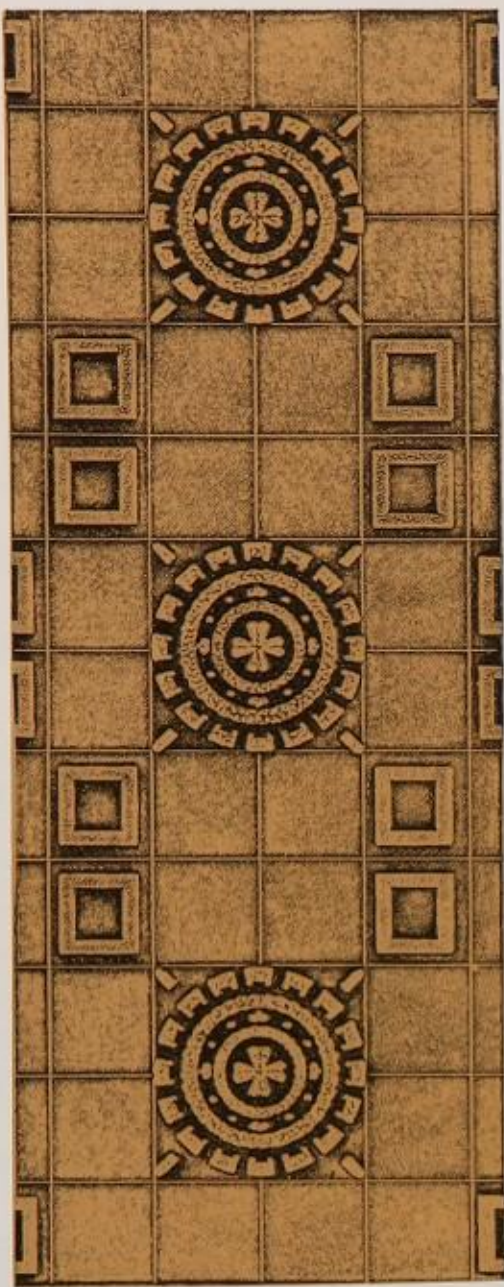

Maintenance of school property including landscaping the grounds and the preparation of well balanced meals at lunch-time were the duties of the school staff.

Cafeterial staff and custodians joined together to make the student's life at school as comfortable as possible. Duties performed by the Head Custodian Adam Broadt, included arriving at school early during winter days in order to have the buildings heated by the time students arrived. Assisting janitors aided in keeping the classrooms clean and free from cumulative trash. With the influx of Miami-Dade Junior College students and evening classes custodial hours were extended.

Realizing teenage eating habits, the cafeteria emphasized a variety of means yet nutritionally balanced servings. Cooking and baking was conducted by the cafeteria staff under the direction of Manager Margaret Howard. On special occasions and holidays the staff prepared special dinners.

CUSTODIANS JOHN DAVIS, ADAM BROADT, AND JAMES KELLY WERE RESPONSIBLE FOR MAINTENANCE OF SCHOOL.

ORGANIZATIONS

Problems of Communication Solved By Student Government

Because of the three shift system, a lack of communication among the three classes became apparent. SC members discussed the problem with the Inter Club Council, coordinator of club activities. ICC decided to publish a daily bulletin and posted club announcements on the bulletin board. Student Council took charge of publishing the Student Handbook. Together, the two organizations directed Homecoming operations while SC sponsored the sixth annual Homecoming dance at the Everglades Hotel.

Six senators elected from each grade level, the three class presidents, a representative from each class board, and Student Council officers comprised the membership. Student Activities Director Leonard Glazer advised President Hank Street and SC on matters of school importance. Students were admitted to open meetings in order to voice their opinions. Through effective student government, problems of communication were solved. The goal of Student Council to bring the problems of student government closer to the individual and make every student feel important was accomplished.

Student Council president Hank Street addressed the student body over the public address system. Club functions, results of games, and general school activities were announced.

JUNIORS PEGGY ENRIGHT AND PAT McLAUGHLIN MAINTAINED THE SCHOLARSHIP BULLETIN BOARD.

Modeling a formal gown suitable for the Christmas dance, senior Wendy Tichenor exhibited ease with which good taste in dress is gained.

Girls' Council United With League To Encourage High Dress Standards

Girls' Council was the unifying force of Girls' League, to which every girl belonged. Six girls were elected to the Council from each grade and six were chosen at large from the student body. Girls' Council sought to foster school spirit, to encourage high standards of conduct and dress, and to make every girl feel that she was an important part of the League. New members were inducted in a formal assembly as the first function in the Council's busy schedule.

Council and League members breakfasted in the cafeteria in successful attempts to unite the two organizations. To maintain the scholarship bulletin board, GC sponsored sock hops honoring football and basketball players. The Council helped Student Council publish the Student Handbook and welcomed incoming sophomores at the Big Sister-Little Sister program. The girls picnicked on the Senior Patio in late August. In preparation for the Winter Wonderland Dance at the Miami Springs Villas Playhouse, Girls' Council presented a fashion show early in December.

NHS Recognized Students With 3.4 Average and Background of Service

Members of National Honor Society received the highest honor attainable to a high school student. Membership evidenced outstanding leadership, scholarship, service, and citizenship. Twenty students were recognized as new members in November and 46 in February. Members pledged to uphold the highest scholastic standards.

NHS enjoyed the visits of prominent speakers from Miami Dade Junior College and the community. Topics included cultural education in the arts and aspects of college life. The Unsinkable Molly Brown was presented to the student body on March 4. Members ushered at College Night and during National Library Week. The society sent a delegation to the national convention in April. At the senior banquet, officers were inducted. Mrs. Lois Wells and Mrs. Jemmie Batchellor sponsored NHS activities.

Tutorial Services Offered by MAΘ to Students in Mathematics Courses

In the modern facilities of the new library, members of Mu Alpha Theta tutored students having difficulty with math. Decision of membership was based on three requirements: 3.4 average for five semesters of higher mathematics, 3.0 overall average, and teacher recommendation. New members, tapped in the fall and spring, had to present a math project. MAΘ prepared students for competition in the National Mathematics Exam in the spring. Donut sales provided funds for the organization. Mrs. Betty Sykes advised President Joe Trafton and the members of Mu Alpha Theta on how to stimulate and broaden student interest in math. This was achieved with prominent guest speakers from the local area.

Phi Beta Chi Sponsored Scientific Films, Speakers, and Experiments

As a chapter of Future Scientists of America, Science Club members explored the different phases of pure sciences and encouraged inquisitive attitudes among its members. This goal was accomplished through the presentation of speakers from Florida universities, scientific films, and demonstrations by students and representatives of local technological companies. In the interest of science, the club was open to all who wished to join.

Phi Beta Chi, science honor society, was instituted in conjunction with the Science Club to honor those members who in addition to being active members of the club attained outstanding scholastic achievements in science. Mr. Robert Sanderson and Mr. Roger Ramage advised the two clubs.

Latin National Honor Society Sent Student Delegation to Local Forum

In preparation for the Latin Forum, hosted by Coral Gables Senior High, Latin National Honor Society tutored students in translation, declamation, and dictation. The delegation was chosen from the outstanding Latin 1, 2, 3, and 4 students. Members also sponsored tutoring sessions for the National Latin Exam in March. Requirements for membership included earning 3.6 average in Latin for three semesters. Mr. Ivan Davis, LNHS adviser, helped members promote interest in the ancient language.

Spanish Honorary Promoted Interest In Language, Customs, Ceremonies

In conjunction with the Spanish Club, Spanish National Honor Society recognized outstanding students. Requirements included a 3.6 average for five semesters of Spanish and a 3.0 overall average. The honor society promoted interest in Spanish language, customs, and ceremonies. Films and speakers were presented at the bimonthly meetings. Four weeks of study at the University of Barcelona in Spain and three weeks of travel to surrounding countries were offered to students in Spanish classes.

Service to the community and school completed the busy schedule. Members contributed baskets of food to Cuban refugee families during Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays. An open dinner meeting gave members an opportunity to sample Spanish dishes. Adviser Mrs. June Kuentz, Spanish teacher, found donut sales to be an efficient fund raising method. The Pancake House was the site of the farewell breakfast.

French Pupils Entered Competition Testing Speech, Structure and Usage

After auditioning for positions, a delegation of French National Honor Society attended the Florida State French Congress. Competition involved declamation, extemporaneous speaking, and dictation and all students were eligible to compete in the Congress. Outstanding students were tapped after proving their academic achievements in first and second year French.

Monthly meetings offering films, often from France, afforded the students the opportunity to learn supplementary material not learned in the classroom. Discussion and refreshments accompanied the meetings. Members were offered a chance to study in Paris and travel to surrounding countries over the summer and credit was given for the course. French Club presented a skit and decorated a car for Panther Prowl activities. Mr. Frank Perez, French teacher, supervised club functions and projects.

As treasurer of La Société de Français, Diane Taylor collected dues from senior Holly Hawkins. Members sold donuts to provide funds.

Members Phyllis Habel, Diane Taylor, Lilly Bowman, Mary Wilkins and Ann Mannheimer sang Christmas carols before a December meeting. French teachers taught native songs to reflect customs unknown to American students.

President Janine Harris spoke on France's customs, language and history using a magazine to illustrate. Match was the French version of America's Life magazine.

German Club Membership Donned Costumes for Annual 'Oktoberfest'

Die Deutsche Bruderschaft, German club, aimed at service to the community and school. Beginning with the second annual 'Oktoberfest', the club recruited new members. The 'Oktoberfest' gave prospective members an opportunity to see native German costumes worn by members and to meet the German exchange student, Annette Bloomeier, an honorary member sponsored by the Christian Youth Exchange Program. DDB promoted interest in all aspects of German life.

At Christmastime, the club caroled holiday songs of the old country to German families and at East Ridge Lutheran Retirement Village. In May, DDB hosted the district meeting of all high school German clubs. Presented by the club were special films and lectures to enlighten students to the cultural aspects of Germany. Mrs. Ingeborg Frank, DDB adviser, related the latest information to the German students with color slides taken on her European trip last summer. DDB sponsored Delta Epsilon Phi, German honor society.

German Honor Society members participated in Panther Prowl activities. Barbara Tatum was a passenger on Die Deutsche Bruderschaft's "Drown the Rebels" float.

Delta Epsilon Phi Tutored Pupils Requiring Help In German Studies

Delta Epsilon Phi, German honor society, completed its second year as an active chapter. Tapping new members first semester, the organization was an extension of Die Deutsche Bruderschaft. Honor students availed themselves to students in German who found difficulty with the language. At the Senior Banquet the outstanding senior received an award for his leadership contribution to the German Club and ΔΕΦ and another senior was recognized for academic achievements. Honor society members anxiously awaited the arrival of new pins. Mrs. Ingeborg Frank was club adviser.

Student Directed Productions Gave Club Chance to Demonstrate Talent

In addition to stimulating student interest in the fine arts, Drama Club participated in Panther Prowl activities. Their black paper mache panther won third place in the float competition. Members assisted with Homecoming skits and set decorations and presented an original skit of their own. Any student taking drama was eligible for membership in the club sponsored by Mrs. Carla Harvey.

Members hoped to be tapped eventually for Thespians, national dramatics honor society. Points were earned outside of school in local productions. Alys Stevenson directed the student production of "The Princess and the Pea" and Ceci Hart directed "Hansel and Gretel" at neighboring elementary schools. Drama Club assisted backstage in Thespian's annual play "The Glass Menagerie".

Thespians Assisted in Stunt Nite, Homecoming Skits, and Class Play

Composed of future actors and actresses, Thespian Troup #1298 introduced students to theatrical arts. Members sponsored a night of one-act plays and assisted the senior class with Senior Stunt Nite and the Senior Play. The annual Thespian production was The Glass Menagerie, presented on December 9-10.

Every member was required to devote at least 100 hours to the theatrical arts. To earn the hours, members appeared at local theaters in children's plays. Thespians sold carnations at the annual Valentine Sale in order to raise funds for new props and scenery. Drama teacher Carla Harvey arranged trips to the Ring Theater of the University of Miami, Coconut Grove Playhouse, and Studio M. New members inducted in January were: Barbara Cook, Cathy Davis, George Hoover, Jack Perez, and Alys Stevenson. At the final banquet, officers for 1967 were inducted.

Junior Sherry Westbrook received carnations from a Drama Club member. Flowers sold for 25 cents were distributed Valentine.

Art Club Purchased Pottery Wheel; And Boasted Scholastic Art Awards

L'Avant Garde extended its promotion of art interest and raised funds by selling three creative Christmas cards. The artists were Shawn Lipscomb, Robin Faunce, Bruce Bruner, Anita Fisk, and Alan Urban. With the profits, the art club purchased a pottery wheel. The wheel was used by students in both arts and crafts classes. L'Avant Garde participated in the Homecoming parade and designed sets for the skits. Field trips to local art galleries were average afternoons for the art students. Adviser Mrs. Marlene Lindquist hosted the annual Christmas reunion for alumni and present members.

L'Avant Garde boasted winners in local, state, and national contests. Merrily Besvinick and Jim Bozer were awarded the Hallmark Art Award. Florida Scholastic Scholarship Awards were presented to Anita Fisk, Merrily Besvinick, and Jim Bozer. In all, seventeen awards were given. Officers were Anita Fisk, president; Shawn Lipscomb, vice-president, Robin Faunce, secretary; and Laurel Carlin, treasurer. Through L'Avant Garde, opportunities to participate in art and other cultural events were provided.

Latin Students Expanded Curriculum By Participating in JCL Functions

Junior Classical League attained its goal by presenting original programs written by members. Skits pertaining to Roman life and customs entertained the Latin students. A study of the language, literature, and customs of ancient Roman life supplemented class learning. The club was open to present and former student of Latin. JCL sponsored the Latin National Honor Society.

Outstanding club members participated in a state-wide Latin Forum at Coral Gables Senior High School. JCL's from local schools presented skits and programs and entered into Latin contests. The club sponsored a candy sale in October as their fund raising project. The annual Roman banquet inducted new officers and presented awards. Latin teacher, Mr. Ivan Davis, sponsored the organization.

Echo's Second Year Programmed Projects for Community and School

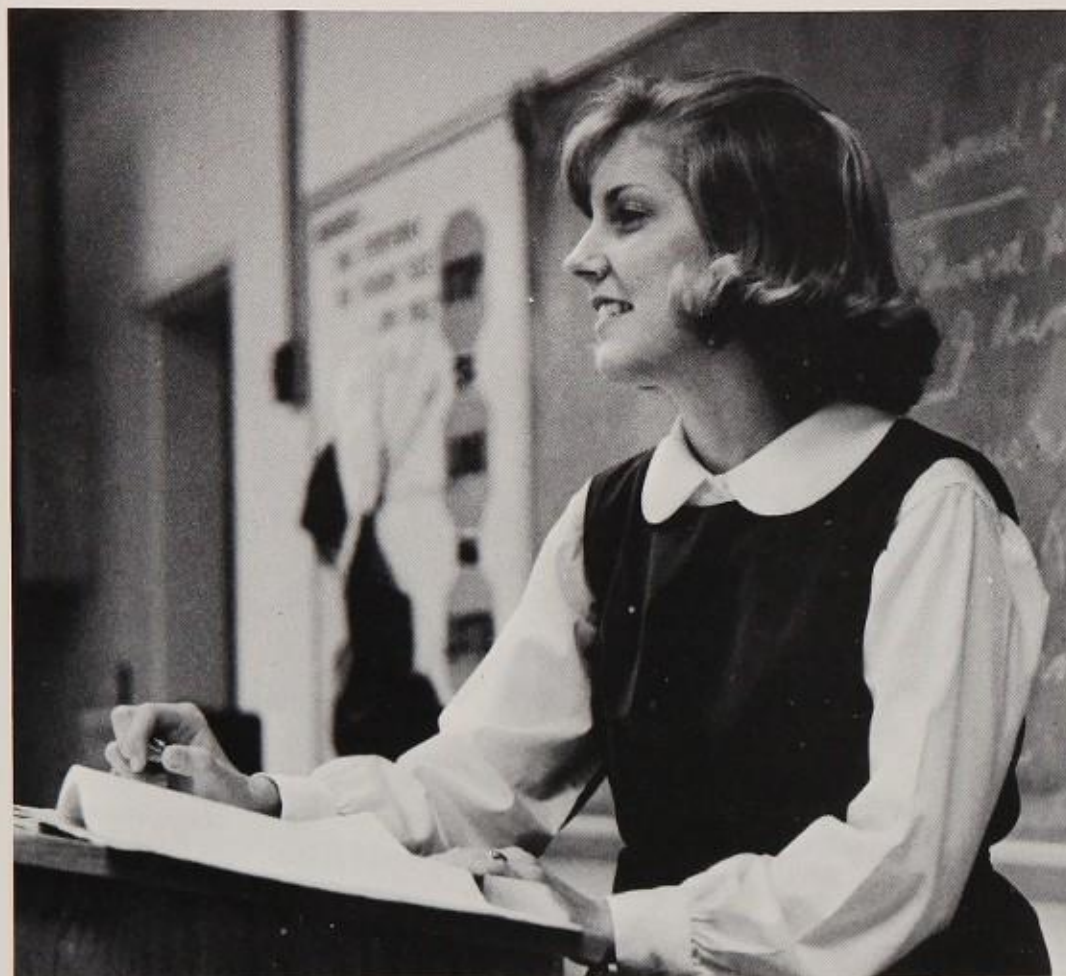

Echo programmed new service projects in their busy schedule. The girls set up a post office for Christmas mail and presented an Easter fashion show. Projects continued from last year included stocking a cookie jar in the teachers' lounge, binding material for the English department, and ushering at school functions.

Echo did not forget Homecoming activities and built an original float for the Panther Prowl. Donut and snow-cone sales and sock hops after football and basketball games raised the funds necessary to maintain the organization.

New members were inducted on the basis of their scholastic average, character, and teacher recommendation. Taping occurred in the fall and spring. In their second year of existence, Echo fulfilled their promise of service to the school and community. The club was established to provide more girls with the opportunity of service. Mrs. Suzanne Crofton and Mrs. Jane Simmons advised the service club and supervised projects.

Community Service Stressed By LJF; Program Achieved Wider Horizons

Les Jeunes Filles continued their sixth year of service to the school and community. A point system was used to make sure every girl was contributing. Maintaining the college bulletins in the main office and ushering at school functions, assemblies and plays were usual point makers. For the second year, LJF members were selected to candy stripe at Doctor's Hospital. Collecting for local charity drives and working at the Thrift Shop in South Miami became an average Saturday for new members tapped at first and second semester.

On special occasions, the girls remembered migrant families with Thanksgiving baskets. During the Christmas holidays the girls dressed dolls for needy families. Cystic Fibrosis children were not forgotten as Les Jeunes Filles and Interact sponsored their annual Christmas party. An Interact member dressed as Santa Claus. Concluding projects were an Easter party given for mentally retarded children and a tea. Miss Janice Wayne and Mrs. Glenda Hubbard were advisers.

Chaplain of Les Jeunes Filles Andrea Geist read from the Bible for devotion given before every meeting.

Senior Bill Vanderbrook portrayed Santa Claus and distributed gifts. Interact and LJF gave a Christmas party for cystic fibrosis children.

Interact President Mark Carlson and member Gary McCorkle, attended a meeting and assisted in planning service projects for both clubs.

Interact Fostered Thoughtfulness, Character and Individual Integrity

Interact incorporated five purposes in their goal. The boys encouraged respect for the individual and the rights of others with the practice of thoughtfulness. Personal responsibility was emphasized as the basis of success, community improvement, and group achievement. As members of the boys' service club, development of constructive leadership and personal integrity was stressed. New members were inducted in the fall and spring. Mr. Walter Dimarko and Mr. Earle Orme sponsored the boys' version of Rotary.

Communal, as well as school service, was stressed in the busy schedule. Interact maintained the Senior Patio and the statue of the Panther. Members assisted Les Jeunes Filles with a Christmas party for Cystic Fibrosis children and collected toys for the Miami Rescue Mission. Interact promoted spirit by wrapping goal posts at football games and posting welcome signs at basketball games. Funds were raised by selling candy after school and at basketball games and hosting sock hops. Long range projects included the insertion of the school seal in the gym floor.

Key Stressed Importance of School And Community Service in Agendas

In addition to donating food to needy families during Thanksgiving and Christmas, Key Club worked at the Haven School for Mentally Retarded Children. Members promoted school spirit with their motto, "Sportsmanship is the Key to Panther Spirit" and urged students to vote during elections.

Key sold programs at home football games and constructed a float for the Panther Prowl. A spoof on teachers' athletic ability was Key's entry in the skit competition.

Sponsored by Kiwanis, members were introduced to careers by guest speakers invited to meetings. Mr. Curtis Ferry, history teacher, supervised the induction of new members in the fall and spring. Seniors Kathy Corney, Randy Roehl, and Junior Susie Hill were Key's sweethearts.

Junior Engineering Club Presented Film and Laser Beam Demonstration

Known as JETS, the Junior Engineering Technical Society promoted interest in the field of engineering by sponsoring field trips to Bell Telephone Microwave Station and Eastern Airlines Computer Center. Members also went to Cape Kennedy and toured the space center. In November, JETS presented a laser beam demonstration with the help of Bell Telephone Company representatives. Specialized engineering programs were presented and students interested in oceanographic engineering were able to witness a film on oceanography.

JETS served the school by offering dark room facilities to photographers. Mr. Robert Sanderson acted as sponsor and assisted President Ronald Anderson in interesting students in engineering.

Paramedical Participated at Local Hospitals in Laboratory Research

Field trips to Jackson Memorial Hospital gave members of Paramedical Club an opportunity to see health centers in action. For service projects, Paramedical filled Christmas Seal envelopes for the Tuberculosis Association, set up an isolation room at the Migrant Workers Day Nursery in Perine, and supplied classrooms with first aid kits for use in an emergency. Interest in health careers was stimulated by the presentation of prominent speakers in the field of medicine. Members often worked with chemistry and biology teachers as laboratory assistants.

Interest in school activities as well as community projects was promoted. Paramedical entered a float in the Homecoming Parade and participated in a skit in the Panther Prowl. Mrs. Margaret Nichols, school nurse, sponsored the Club.

Preparing Teachers For Tomorrow Was Emphasized In FTA Activities

Future Teachers served the school by tutoring students and assisting teachers. Members compiled an honor roll for The News Leader and a last will and testament for the Panther. A book drive was sponsored for the children of Variety Hospital. Film strips and a program "Independent Study" on the art of teaching, future of teaching, and new teaching were presented. To promote teaching ideals, prepare teachers of tomorrow, and provide a place to discuss the facets of education attracted students to join FTA.

FTA visited other schools to observe teaching techniques. With the spirit of Homecoming, members entered a float in the parade and sold jinx dolls. On January 29, FTA lunched at Palmetto Country Club and guest speakers were invited. Future Teachers gave teachers apples for Valentines Day. At a concluding banquet, awards were given to outstanding senior members on the basis of service. Mr. William Boddington, English teacher, advised FTA.

MODERN DANCE

Club officers and charter members included Lynn Bowers, Sharon Chalders, Judy Hill, Sharon Morrow and Skip Fletcher, chaplain.

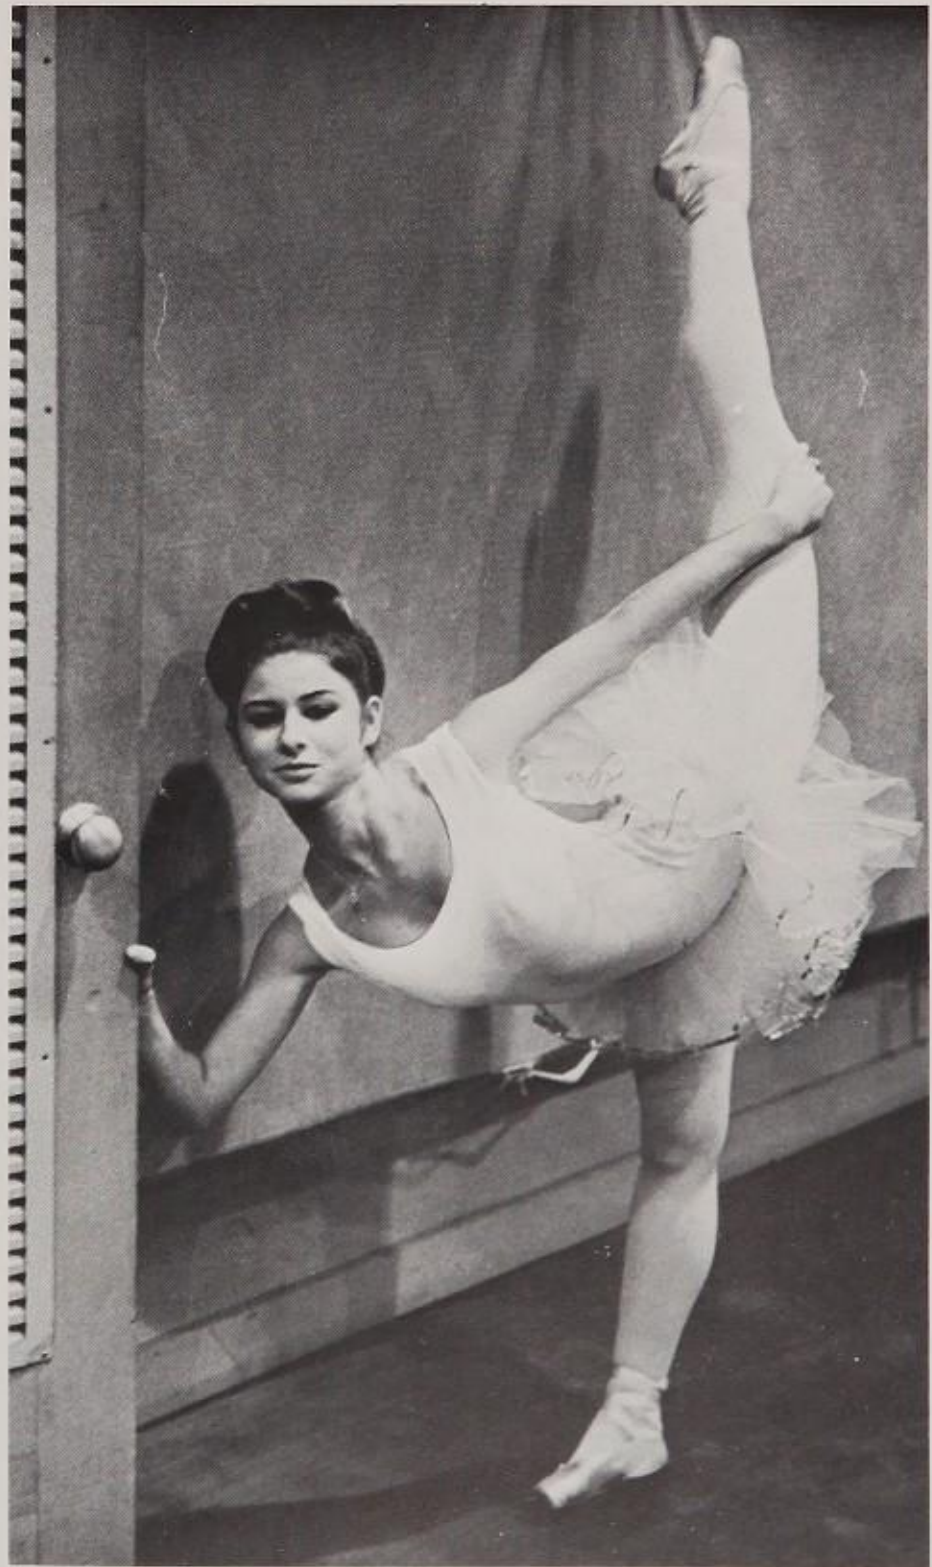

Linda Welchlin performed an unusual modern dance presentation. Expression was key to creative jazz routine choreography.

Self-Expression and Poise Created In Contemporary Jazz Performances

Practicing at each Modern Dance Club meeting provided a creative outlet for the individual's personal and cultural expression. President Sharon Childers and Holly Simmons choreographed an original dance portraying contemporary versus traditional teenage life at Senior Stunt Nite. For the Girls' Council Fashion Show, advanced modern dance students composed a routine to "Jingle Bell Rock".

Basic modern dance students presented "The Twelve Days of Christmas" to physical education classes. In March, members presented a spring recital in the school auditorium and assisted Miss Nonie Green, adviser, in teaching dance techniques to sophomore girls. Modern dance was included in their physical education program.

In addition to modern dance instruction in class, members took ballet. Holly Simmons did her warm up exercises before practice.

Spirit 'a Go Go Exhibited by GSC As Club Sponsored Service Program

After volleyball, basketball, and softball sports' days, GSC inducted girls who showed outstanding athletic ability. The girls also participated in track, field, and badminton. Profits from snow-cone sales enabled Girls' Sports Club to give a coke and beach party for new members. A spirit corps, consisting of Chatonettes, majorettes, cheerleaders, marching band and the tennis and swimming teams, belonged to GSC.

Members promoted interest in school activities by entering a float in Homecoming parade competition. Service to the community and school was stressed when clothing, food, and toys were collected during Christmas and given to a needy family. The girls sponsored an Easter egg hunt at a local orphanage and a camping trip to Camp Owaissa Bauer. In May, new members and officers were installed in an informal ceremony. Miss Betty Wilkie, physical education instructor, supervised club activities.

CBE Provided Business Experience And Job Opportunities to Students

Cooperative Business Education members began their school day at 7:30 and worked at part-time jobs from 12:30 to 5:00. In this manner, they received business experience while attending school. Delegates representing CBE clubs in the area attended the District 10 Conference and state convention. Employers were invited to the annual employer-employee Banquet.

With the profits from fund raising projects, members sponsored a beach party and a vocational breakfast. In the area of community service, CBE adopted a child for 15 dollars a month. The contribution paid for his clothing, food, and education. Business education teacher and adviser of club activities was Mrs. Katherine George.

Quill and Scroll Members Attended State and National Press Meetings

In conjunction with newspaper and yearbook staffs, members of Quill and Scroll, journalism honorary society, hosted the Florida Scholastic Press Association South District meeting on November 6. Members of both staffs attended the FSPA state convention in Cocoa Beach, March 14-16.

Bethany Brown, Holly Hawkins, Juliann Kaiser and adviser Mary Griffith spent Thanksgiving vacation at the National Scholastic Press Association Convention in Chicago. The delegates represented one of two high schools invited to present a program for the national conference. The group reported on "How to Present a District Workshop." Conventions provided ideas for improvement in student publications.

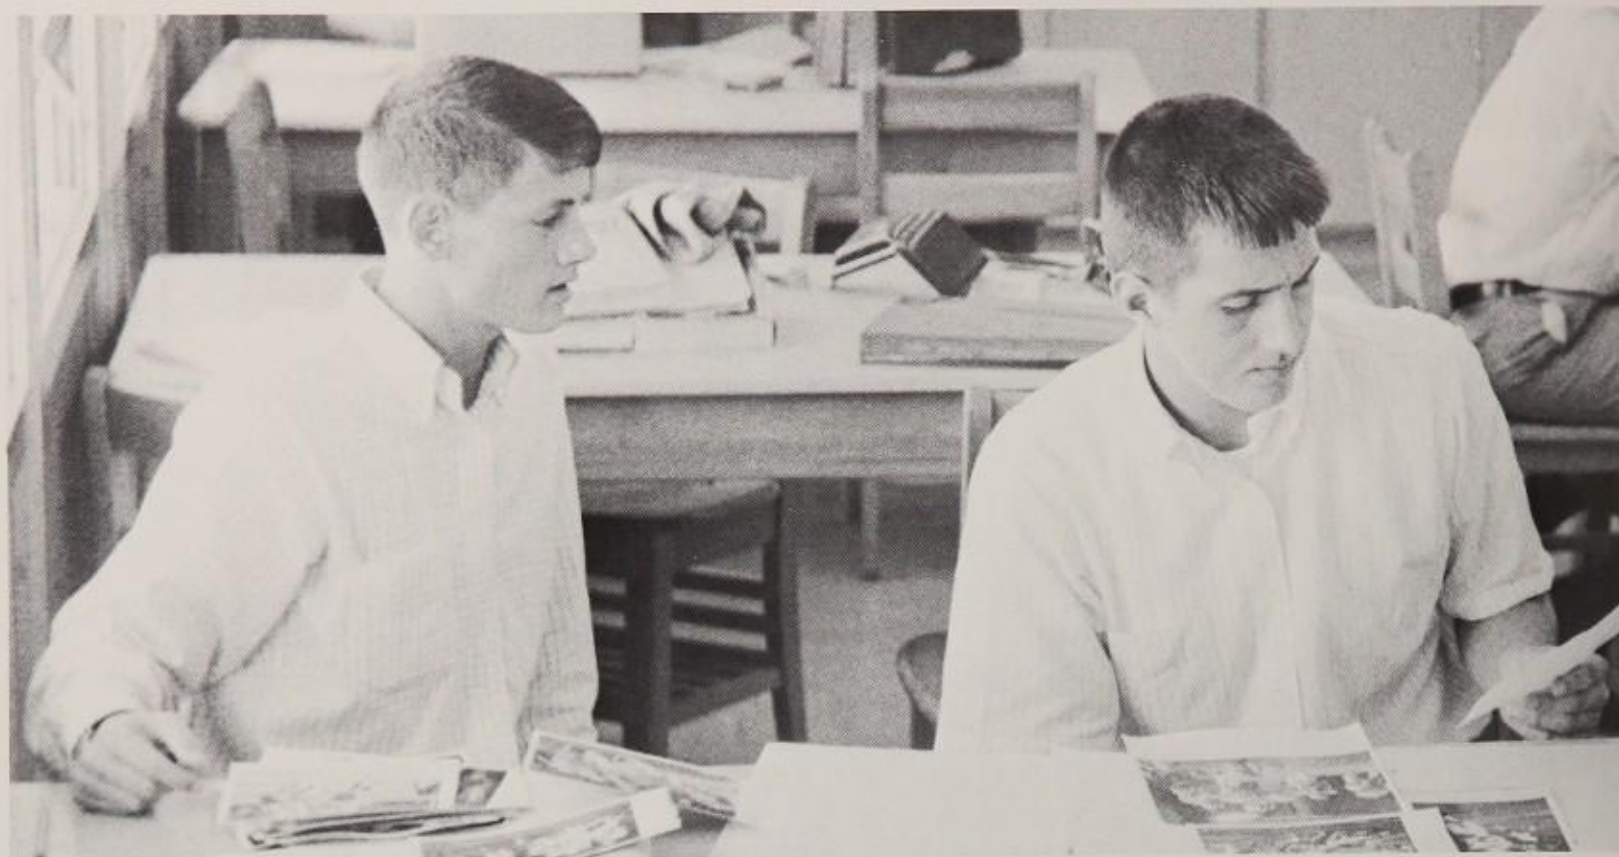

New members were tapped in the spring of their junior year, selection based on outstanding contribution to a publication. Ranking in the upper third of their class was a criterion for candidacy. Tappees selected were Doug Bruce, Nancy Drew, Carol Levin, Shelley Newton, Ann Silvia, and Debra Zuckerman.

JULIANN KAISER, HOLLY HAWKINS AND KIM SUDDERTH DISCUSSED BANQUET PLANS.

SPORTS EDITOR GEORGE POPOVICH APPROVED CARL LINDGREN'S SELECTION OF PICTURES FOR THEIR SECTION.

Mrs. Mary Griffith suggested picture ideas to Faculty Editor Sam Goldstein who gave the information to photographer Brad Miller.

A newcomer to yearbook staff, Senior Editor Ellen Sherman asked a question pertaining to her layouts. Staff members learned modified mosaic designs.

Nancy Drew and Carol Levin, Organizations Editors, selected pictures cropped unnecessary parts, enlarged or reduced them, and wrote copy.

Staff Members Worked After School To Complete Pages for Publication

In order to meet the four publishing deadlines, the working staff extended classroom time to after school and weekends. Palm Echo Editor Bethany Brown and Managing Editor Juliann Kaiser assisted the section editors in preparing their pages for publication. Completing a page involved taking pictures and writing copy. The section editors suggested ideas to photo coordinator Jeanne Reisinger, who instructed the photographers. When the editors received the pictures, they cropped unnecessary parts, and either enlarged or reduced them. Then the staff wrote appropriate captions and copy.

Between deadlines, the staff attended journalism conventions in Cocoa Beach and the University of Miami. The staff was represented at the Theta Sigma Phi-Sigma Delta Chi seminar, Florida Scholastic Press Association conventions, and National Scholastic Press Association convention.

Editor-in-Chief Bethany Brown copy read, rewrote, and typed staff copy. She was responsible for helping the staff meet deadlines.

Underclass Editor Shelley Newton prepared a page for publication by writing a caption. Shelley also sold over $350 worth of advertising.

Staff member Trisha Theodore sold newspapers during lunchtime with Make-up Editor Bethany Brown. The Panther was also sold by the issue for ten cents during homeroom.

Feature Editor Ann Silvia used imagination to create stories. She reminded the staff of their assignments.

Twenty-Five Panther Staff Members Worked Weekends to Meet Deadline

Under Editor-in-Chief Holly Hawkins, the Panther published fourteen issues. Included as one of the issues was a farewell graduation special. Promotion ideas included a chance to win two free tickets to the Bahamas on the Steamship Lucaya. With the help of editors Val Sutherland, Ann Silvia, Debby Zuckerman, Bethany Brown, and Rocky Doddridge, the Panther promoted interest in school publications.

Between deadlines, the staff attended the Theta Sigma Phi-Sigma Delta Chi seminar at the University of Miami. In conjunction with the yearbook staff and Quill and Scroll, the Panther hosted the Florida Scholastic Press Association District Convention. In March, four representatives were invited to the FSPA state convention in Cocoa Beach. Miss Miriam Klein, adviser, helped editors prepare the Panther for their publication deadlines.

In preparation for his job as advertising manager, Ira Baron discussed promotion ideas with Managing Editor Val Sutherland.

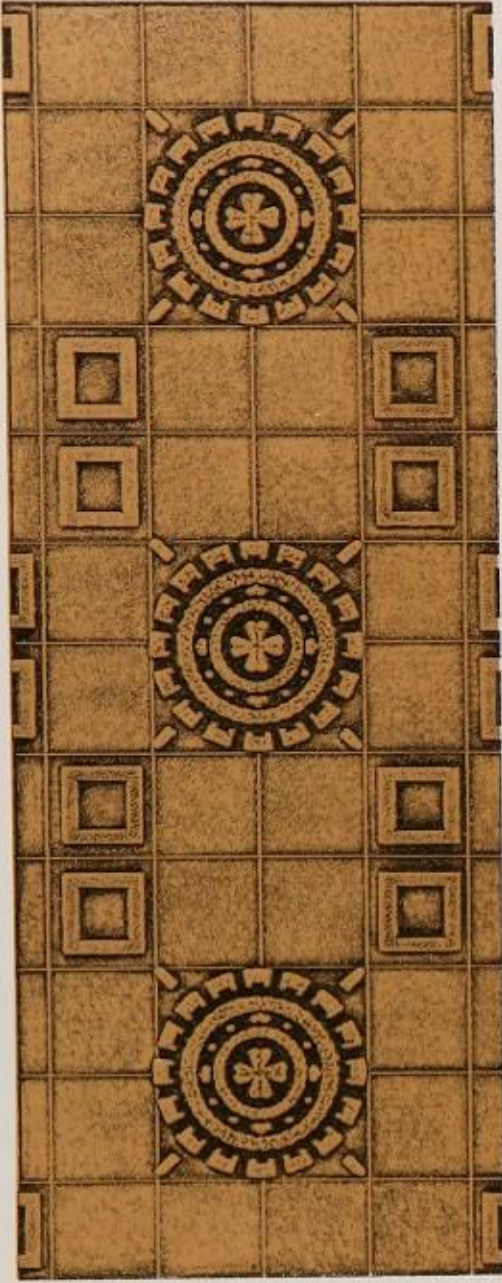

Staff member Marilyn Miller avidly read the October edition of the Panther. Only a sophomore, her articles appeared regularly in print.

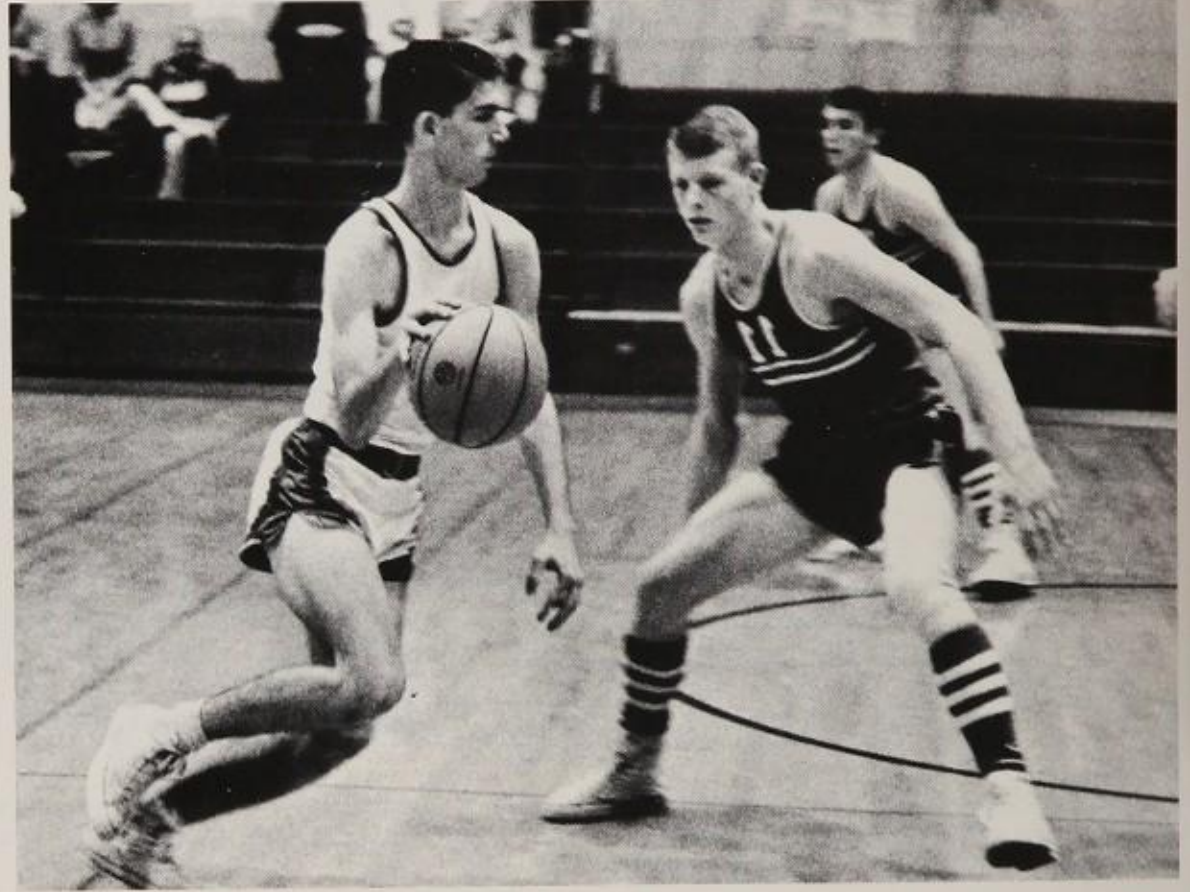

News Editor Debby Zuckerman discussed plans for future articles with adviser Miss Miriam Klein. Included in her duties was reading proof.

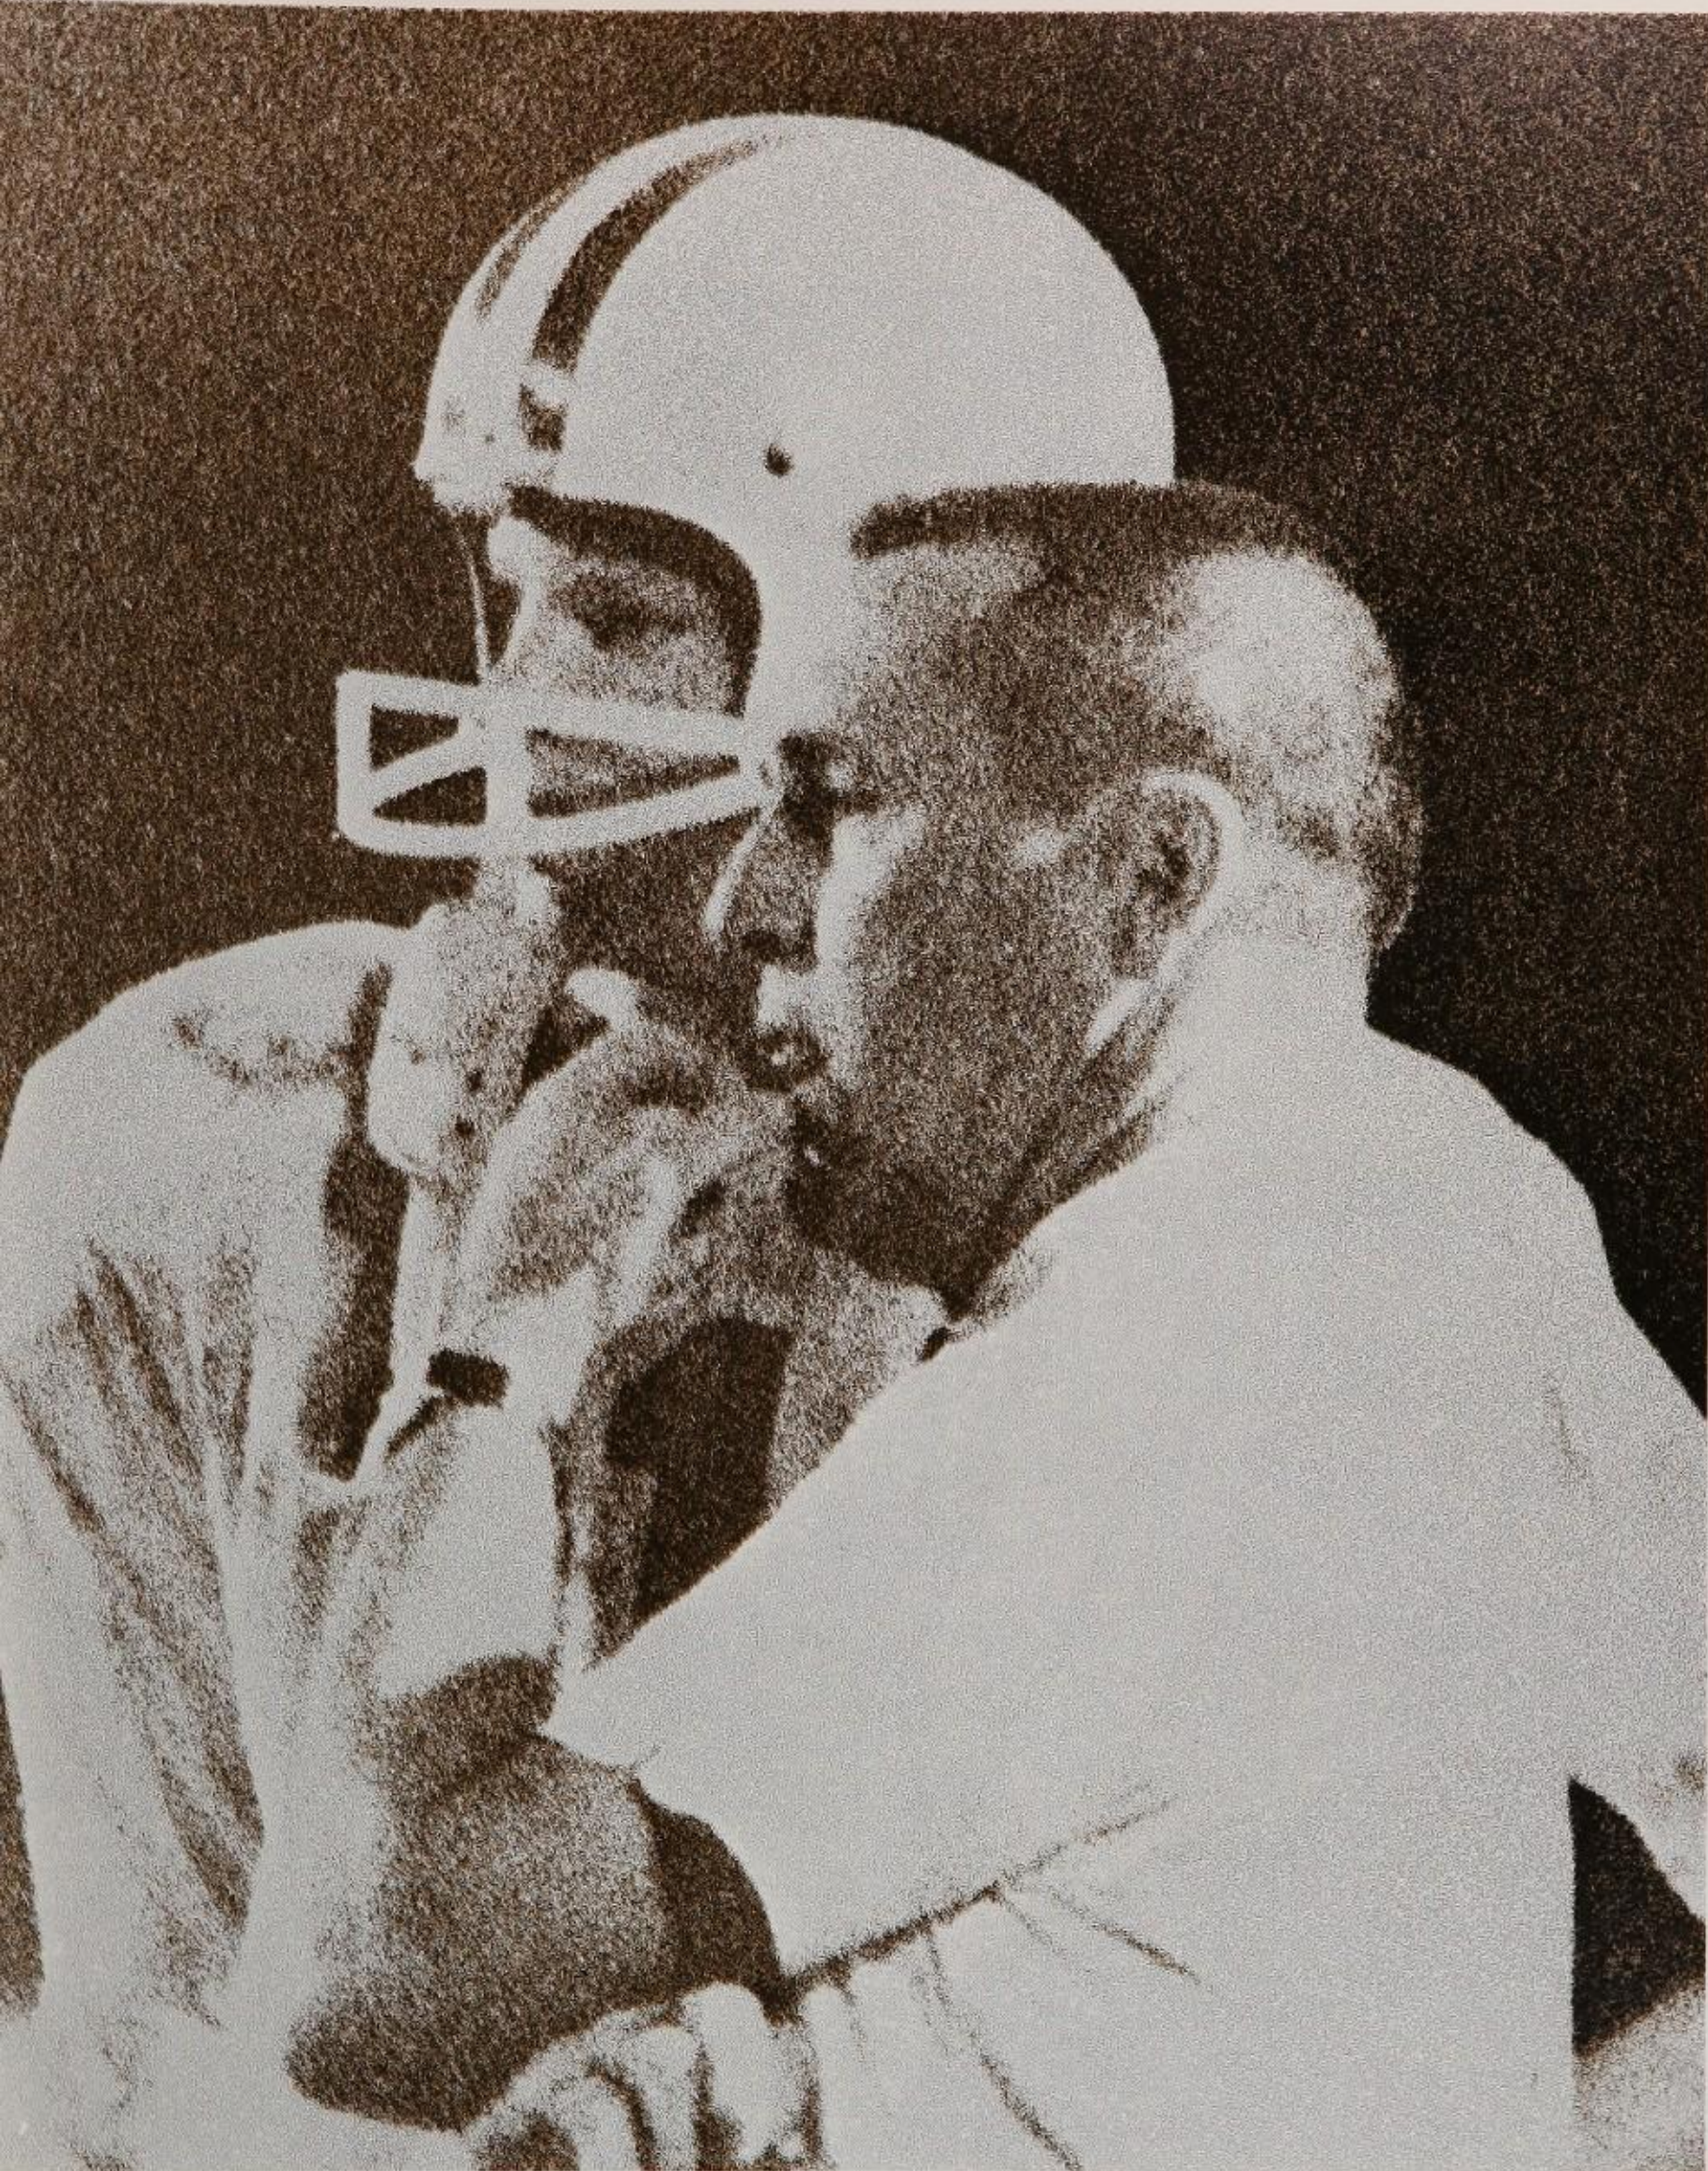

STAFF MEMBER JULIANN KAISER ASSISTED EDITOR HOLLY HAWKINS WRITING ARTICLES.

Pre-Season Ratings Did Not Help; As Panthers' Offense Turned Sour

Highly rated in pre-season polls as seventh in the state, Palmetto failed to meet expectations. Curley, the Panthers' first opponent, was weak in every field. Palmetto's offensive team ran up 32 points on the Knights' defense, keeping Curley down to short yardage and holding them scoreless. The Panthers rode on Charlie Murdock's legs and Charlie Richards' arm. Miami Springs was another easy opponent for the potent Panthers. The squad emerged with an impressive 20-0 victory, but passed up several scoring chances. Again, Charlie Murdock was the work horse and Charlie Richards went to the air in tough situations.

Palmetto's downfall was now to come. A spunky Coral Park team upset the Panthers 13-0. It seemed the team's ranking and high merits did them no good as broken assignments and a lazy attitude gave the Panthers their first loss. Deserving honorable mention in the losing effort was Don McCormick. He gained three-fourths of the squad's total yardage gained by the team. Palmetto was upset again, but this time by the Southwest Eagles. Jay McCoy almost took the opposition on single handed as he scored all of the Eagles' points in a 20-7 victory. This loss left the slumping Panthers with a 2-2 record as they faced the undefeated Norland High.

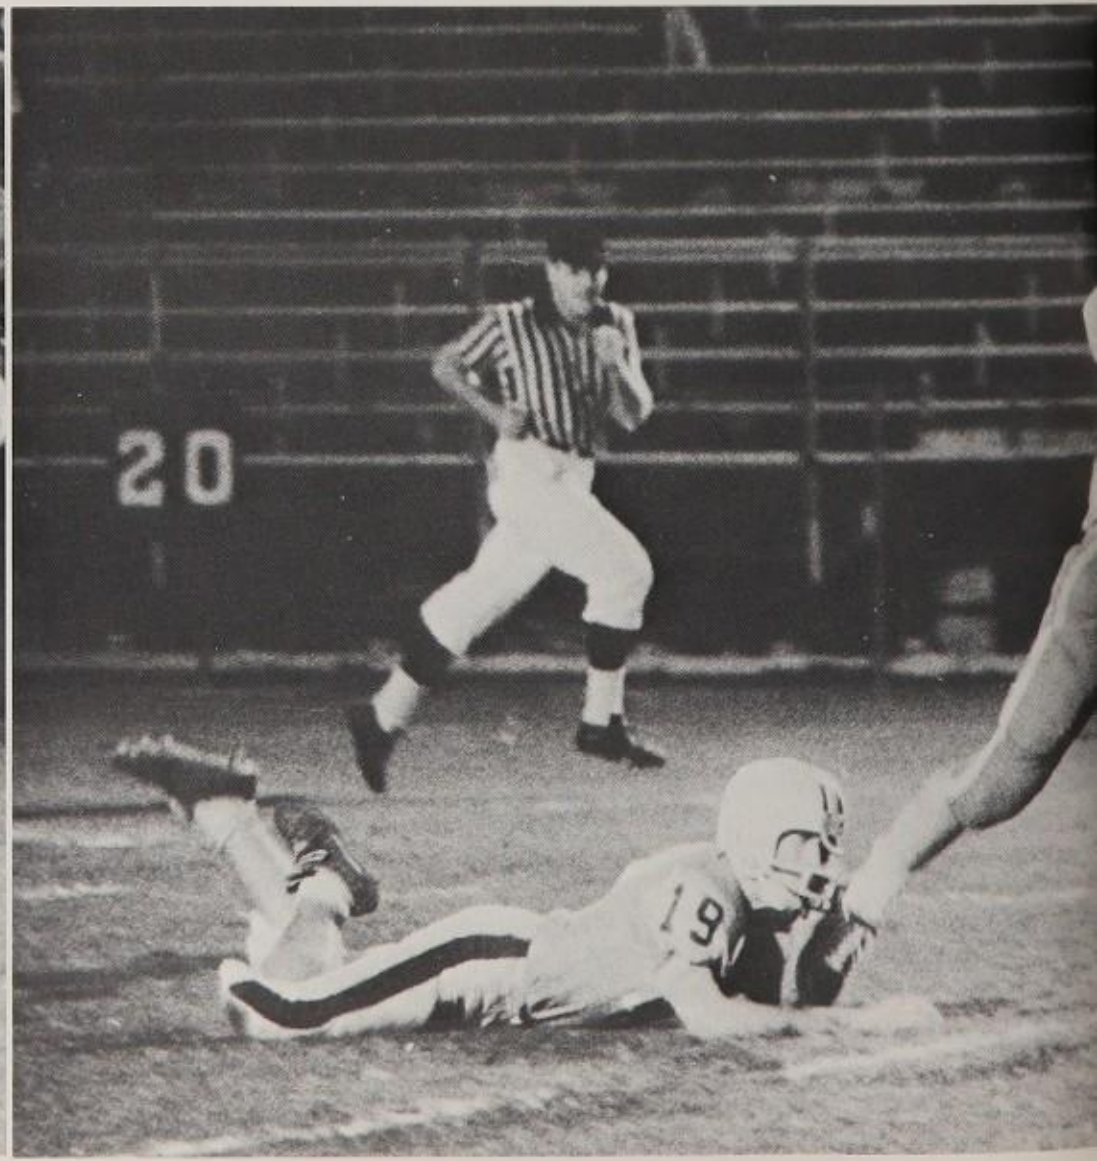

Norland won the game on the Panthers' poor defensive team as they gave the Vikings the ball seven times unnecessarily on fumbles and mislaid passes. The defense gave up the most yards that they had ever given up in a single game. Palmetto moved the ball well but could not get the important yardage when it was needed.

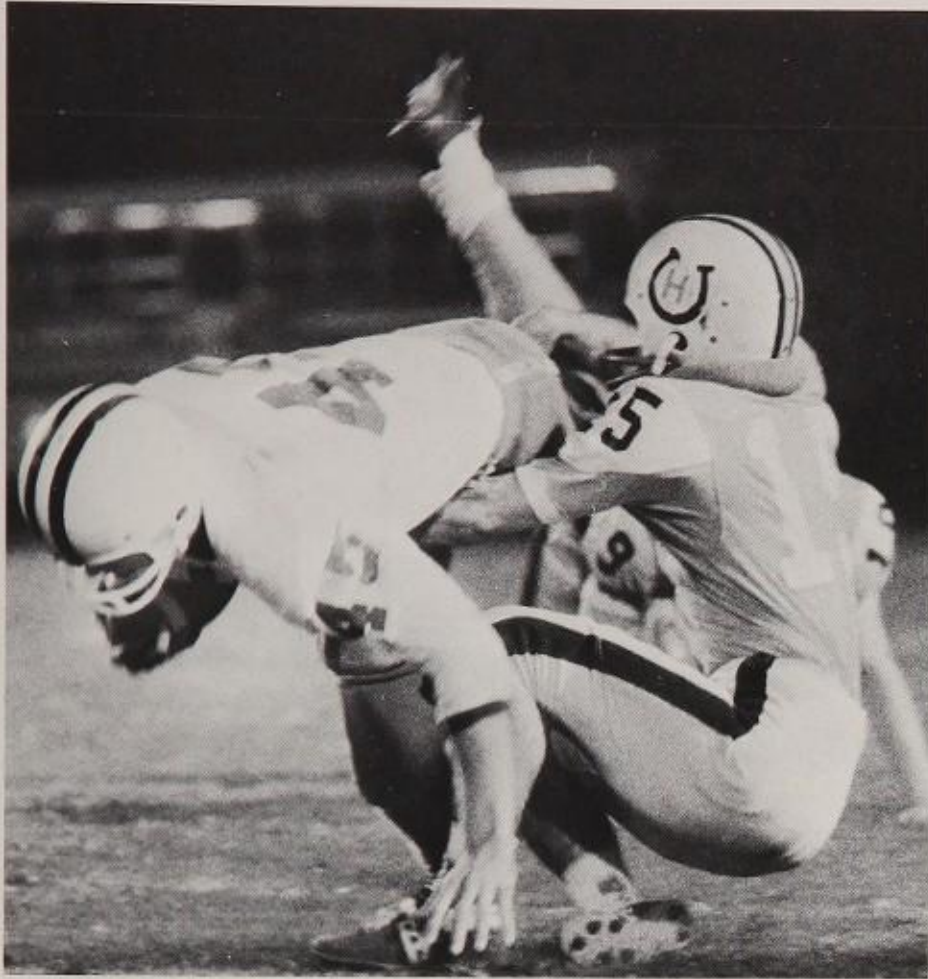

SAM CARLISLE, STEVE WOODS AND LARRY QUINN MOVED IN TO STOP SOUTHWEST'S HALFBACK JAY McCOY.

DEFENSIVE HALFBACK DAVE MOSURE LEAPED IN AN ATTEMPTED BLOCK OF STINGAREE POINT AFTER TOUCHDOWN.

Panthers Fought Back at Close of Season to Finish With A 5-5 Record; Senior Fred Theil Received Honors As Outstanding Player During Season

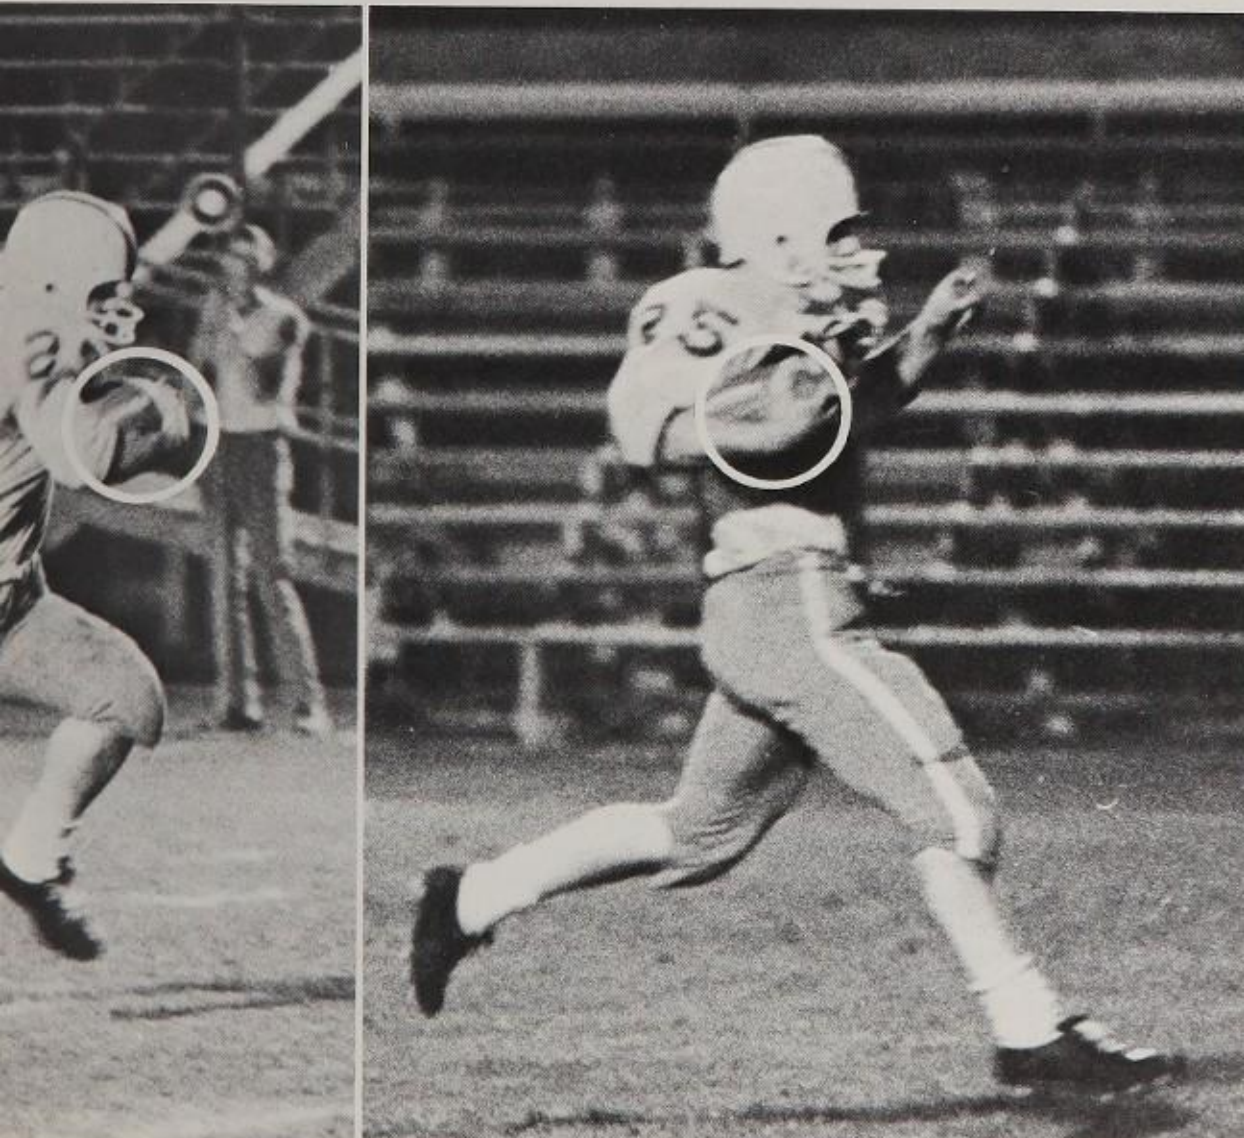

After taking pitchout, Panther offensive halfback Don McCormick was upended by Hialeah's last defensive halfback after substantial gain.

Palmetto finally displayed the power possessed at the beginning of the season but it was only in the second half after their loss to the undefeated Coral Gables Cavaliers. Palmetto was the 27th victim of Coral Gables, losing 25-0. Panther gridgers could only muster up 62 yards to the 343 yards for the Cavaliers. Tommy Warren ran for three of Gables' touchdowns and gained 140 yards. Panther offense was just as ineffectual as its defense.

Panthers rode the Thoroughbreds for their first win after four losses. Charlie Murdock was the power behind the team and Don McCormick threw key downfield blocks in a 16-7 victory.

When the team played the Miami High Stingarees another loss for the poor playing Panthers was recorded. Palmetto scored one touchdown against the best defensive team in the county and the final score was 27-6.

Columbus was the next opponent and the Explorers lacked players and experience in the players they did have. This should have been a breather for the team but it turned into a 3-0 squeaker. Wayne Yancey kicked a 32 yard field goal early in the first quarter which gave the Panthers their only score. Columbus did show a few scoring threats toward the end of the game but so did Palmetto. Lane Kauffmann was the leading ground gainer. Lane played pressure ball as he came up with the tough yardage.

Panther halfback Charlie Murdock broke into the clear, then streaked through the Thoroughbreds secondary, running a twenty-one yard touchdown. Palmetto recorded the first score of the game.

WILD CARD HALFBACK CHARLIE MURDOCK RAMMED THROUGH REBEL LINES FOR PANTHERS TOUCHDOWN.

Homecoming Victory Left Panthers Standing Firm on 5-5 Season Berth

South Dade, Homecoming rival each Thanksgiving, became the squad's upset victim as it ended the season with a 29-7 victory over the Rebels, rated number ten in the state. Halfback Charlie Murdock again pulled through as he carried the ball more than any other back.

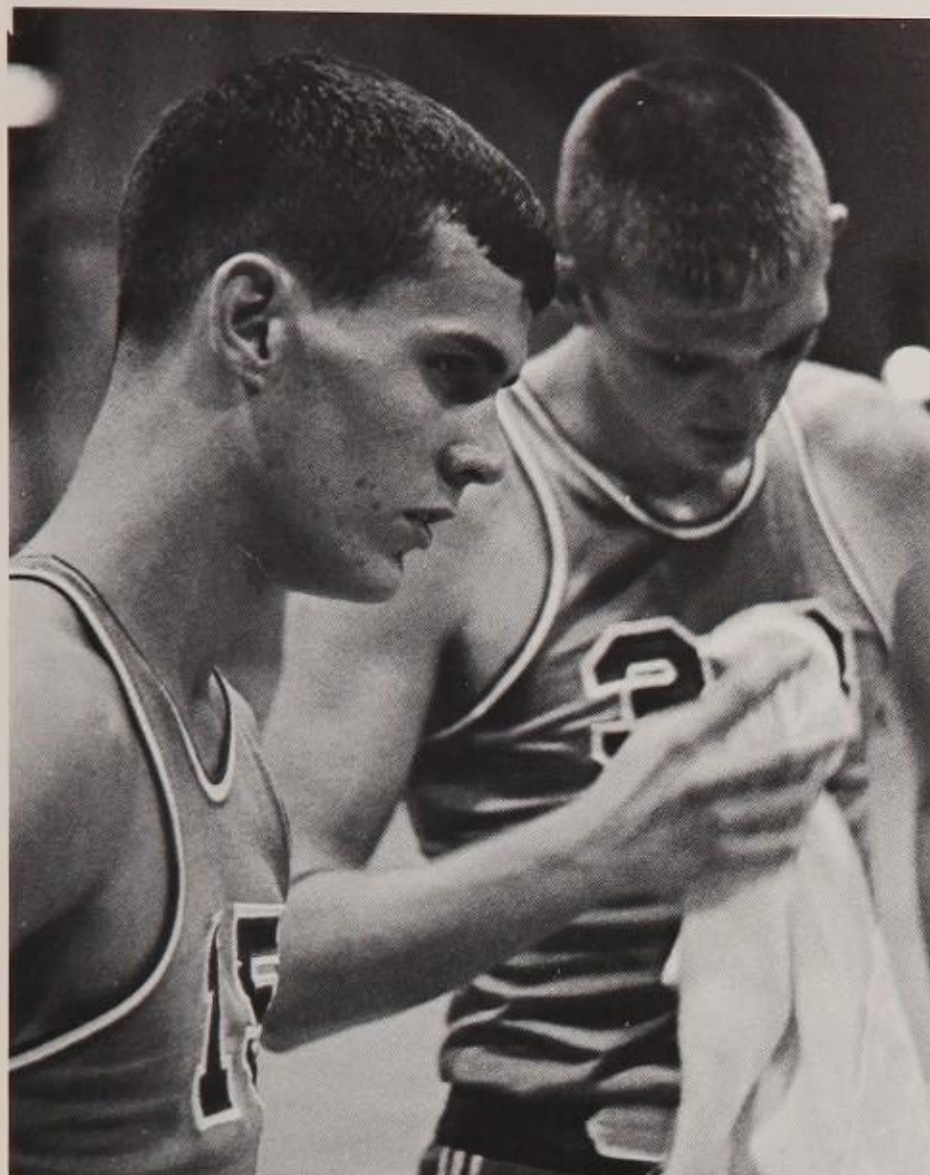

Right Halfback Don McCormick shone as he came up with two touchdown receptions. Pugnacious defense held South Dade to one touchdown. Palmetto's Ken Lyne broke through the Rebel's line to record a safety. Steve Woods and Sam Carlisle intercepted passes to keep the ball away from South Dade.

Culminating the season, The MIAMI HERALD named Center Fred Theil to the All-City first team. Six other Panthers joined the list as honorable nominees. They were lineman Mike Gleman, Sam Carlisle, and Len McNeil and backs Lane Kauffman, Charlie Richards, and junior Dave Mosure.

At the Football Awards Banquet, Sammy Carlisle swept honors when named Unsung Hero and voted team captain. Most Valuable Player was awarded to Mike Gleman while center Fred Theil received Most Valuable Lineman. Don McCormick emerged with the Most Valuable Back Award.

Junior quarterback Steve Woods rolled out on a snap from Fred Theil. Underclassmen played during the season to gain valuable experience.

Tom Hutchins and Pat Martin rested during a time out and listened to Coach Collins. Tom was on the first squad throughout the year.

Upset of Key West Capped Season; Roundballers Posted 11-14 Record

Spurred into action by home crowd spirit, the Panthers defeated Key West 63-60 in the Conch's bid for the Gold Coast Conference Championship. This victory highlighted the team's otherwise disappointing season.

Under the direction of Coach Dale Collins, the roundballers got off to a fast start. In their first game, they easily whipped past Miami Central. Panther basketballers shone as they beat Miami Beach for the first time in the team's history. Their first loss came when Curley made use of their press. As the season continued, injuries plagued the team. Bill Brant, an early contender for high scoring honors, received a badly sprained thumb. Bill Atwood, whose height and experience were valuable, was constantly hindered by a bad leg.

In the Group 16AA Tournament, Palmetto triumphed over Columbus in a close battle, but lost to Key West in the final 10 seconds of play. High scoring honors for the season were shared by Bobby Orr and Lee Mahatzke. Lee was the high scorer for the club while the highest score, 32 points, was recorded by Bobby Orr during the Miami Springs game.

BASKETBALL

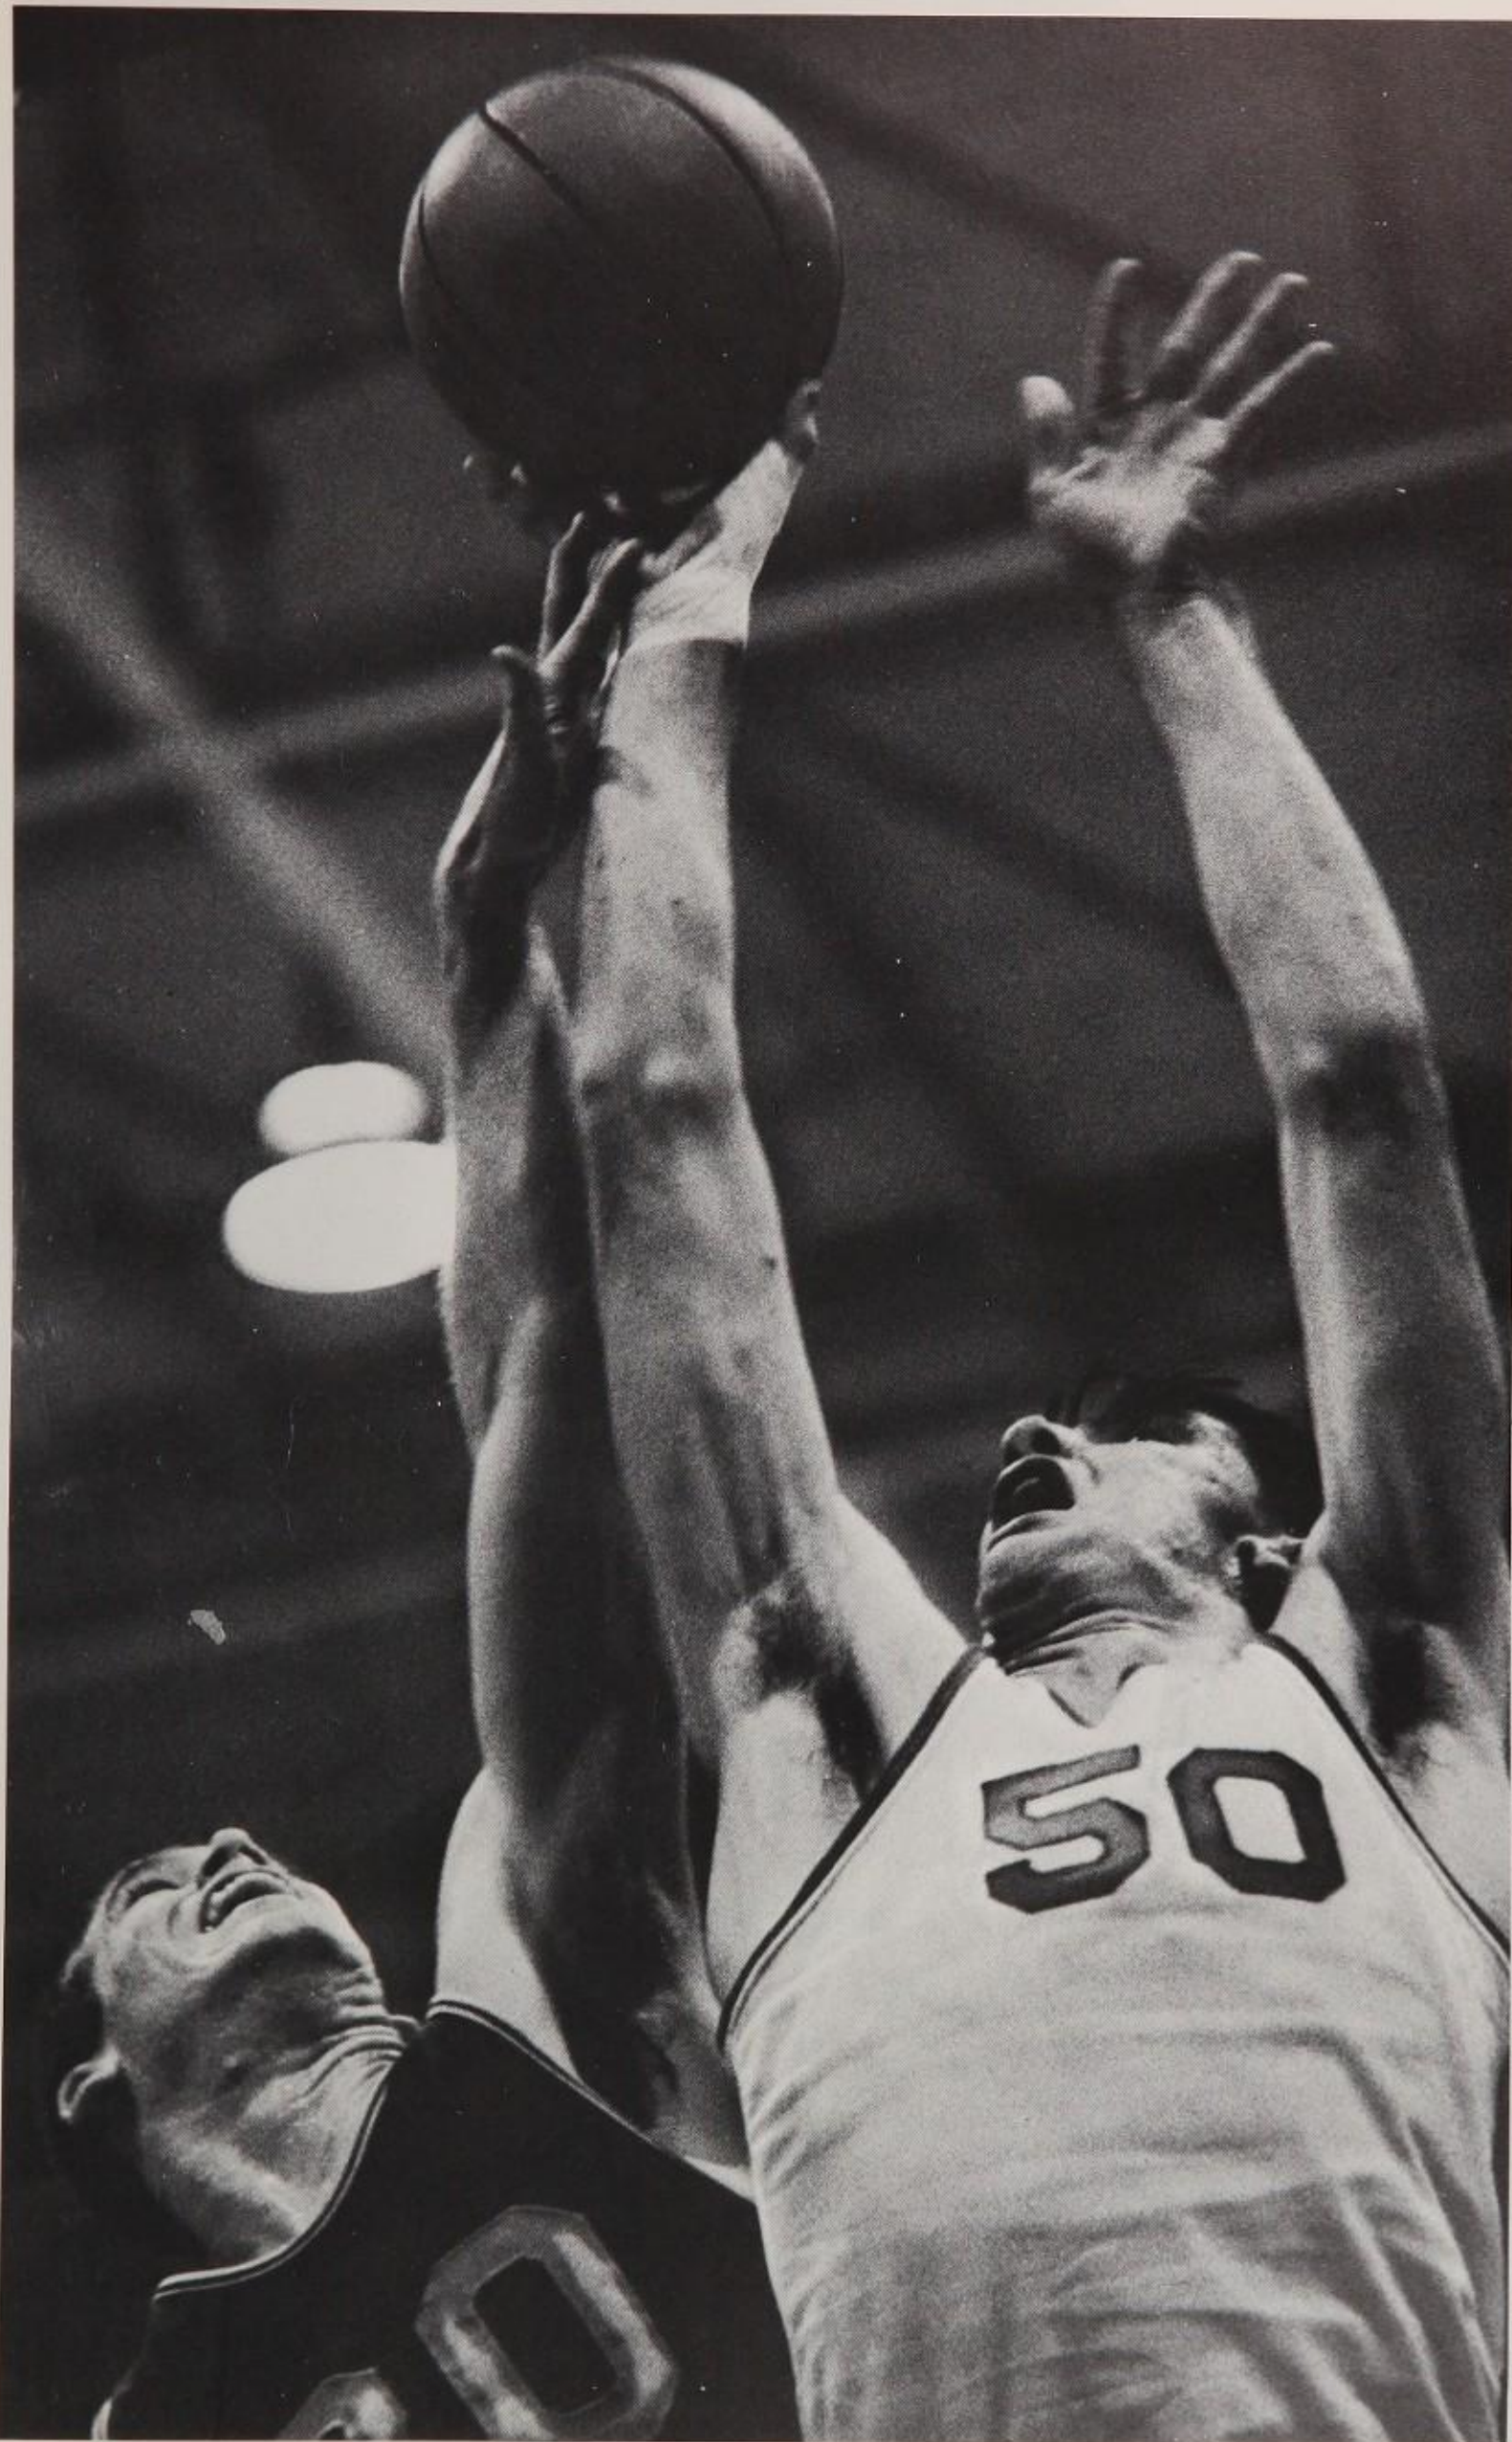

A MIAMI SPRINGS ROCKET MOVED IN TO ATTEMPT A BLOCK OF FORWARD BOBBY ORR'S JUMPSHOT.

Starting forward Bill Brant sunk a basket on a jumpshot against the Miami Beach High Tides.

Kelly MacTaggart rushed in and jumped high for a basket against the South Dade Rebels. Panther Cagers carried the game into overtime, but lost 63-62.

CLARK BEGGS WENT UP FOR A SHORT JUMP SHOT AGAINST SOUTH DADE'S LOVELAND. PALMETTO LOST 67-66.

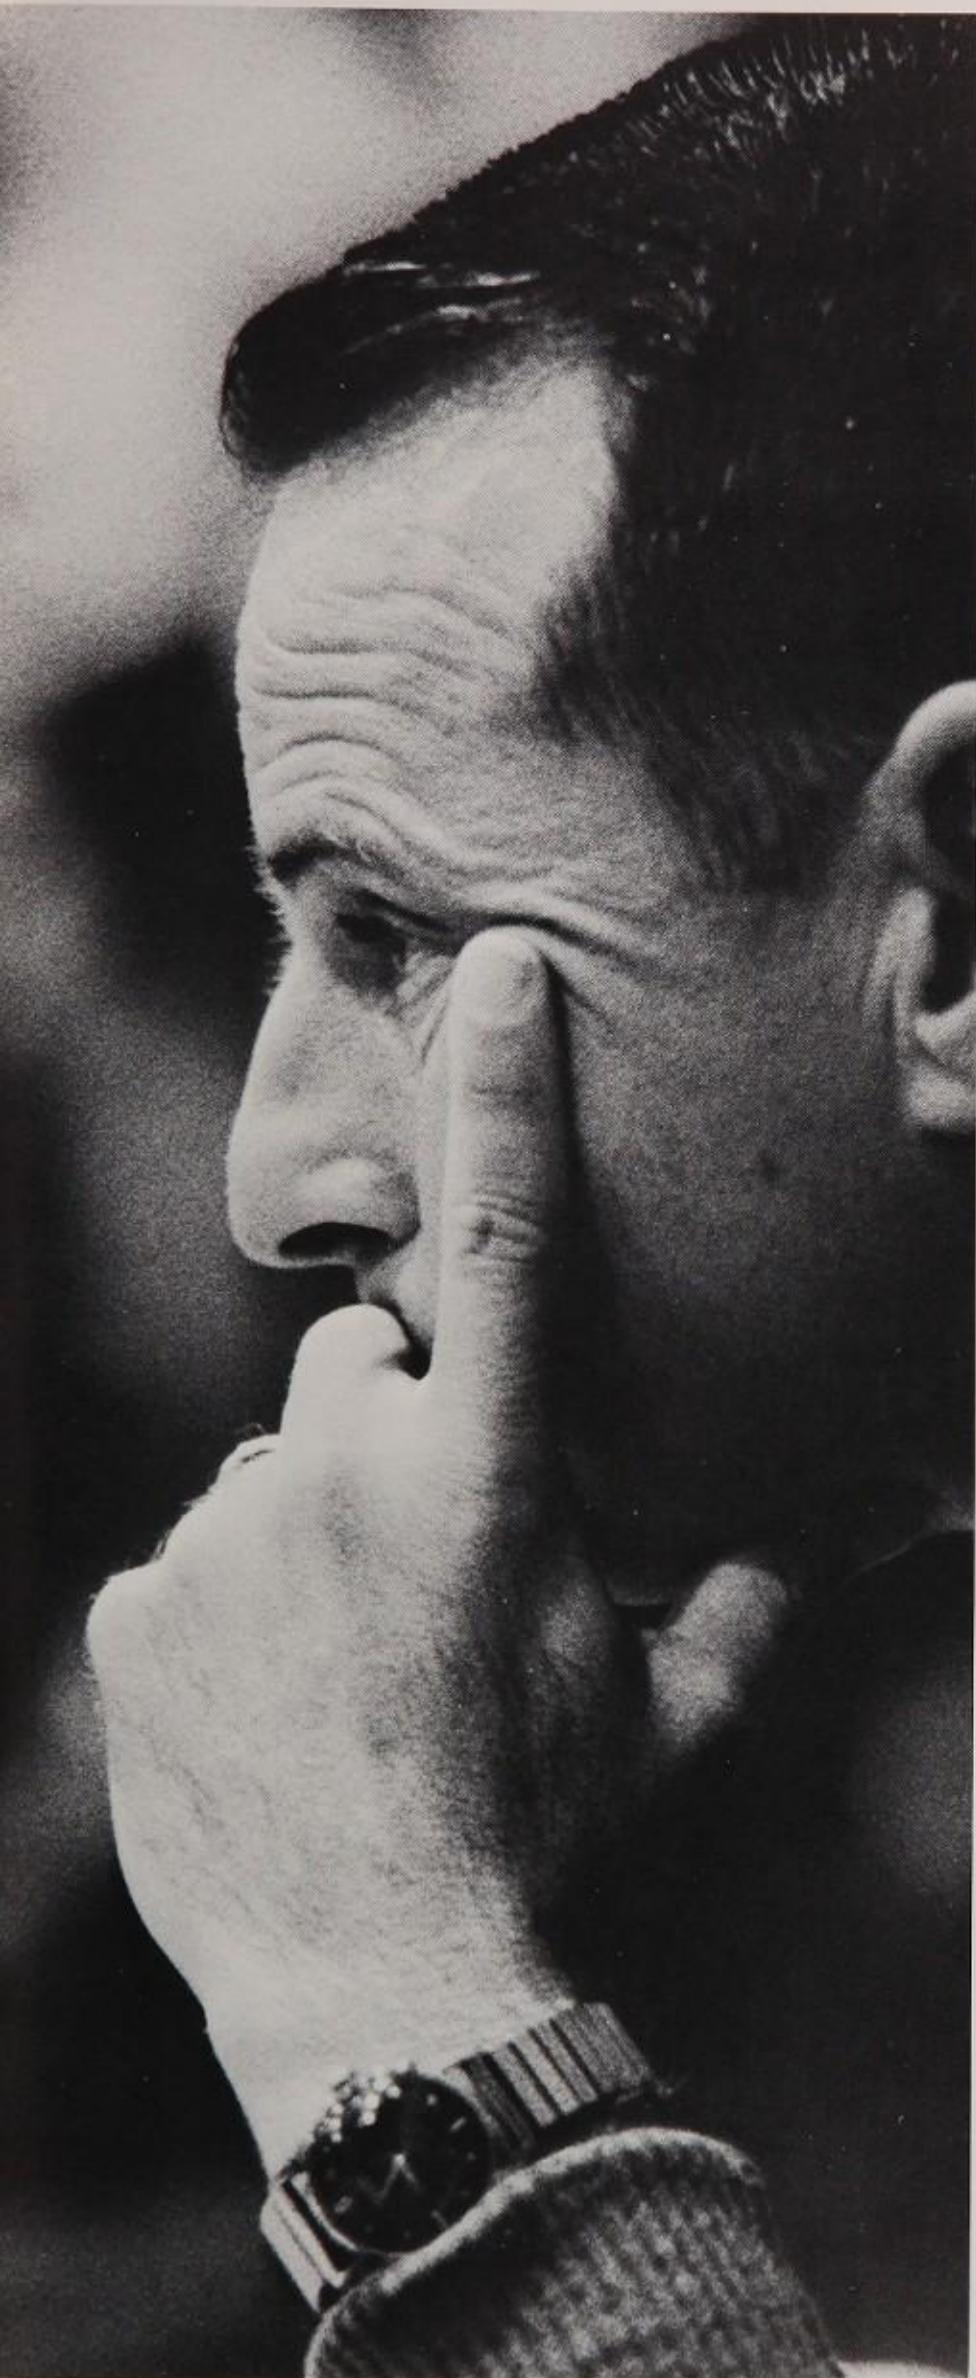

BASKETBALL

In Palmetto's first group 16AA tournament game, Pat Martin sank a basket on a jump shot in the Columbus contest. The Panthers defeated the Explorers in a 64-62 score.

JUNIOR FORWARD KELLY MACTAGGERT AND JOHN HOLLOWELL MOVED IN DEFENSIVELY TO GRAB REBOUND FROM MIAMI BEACH TIDES.

Varsity Basketball Coach Dale Collins pondered over team's play in first period of game against Pompano Beach in Holiday tournament.

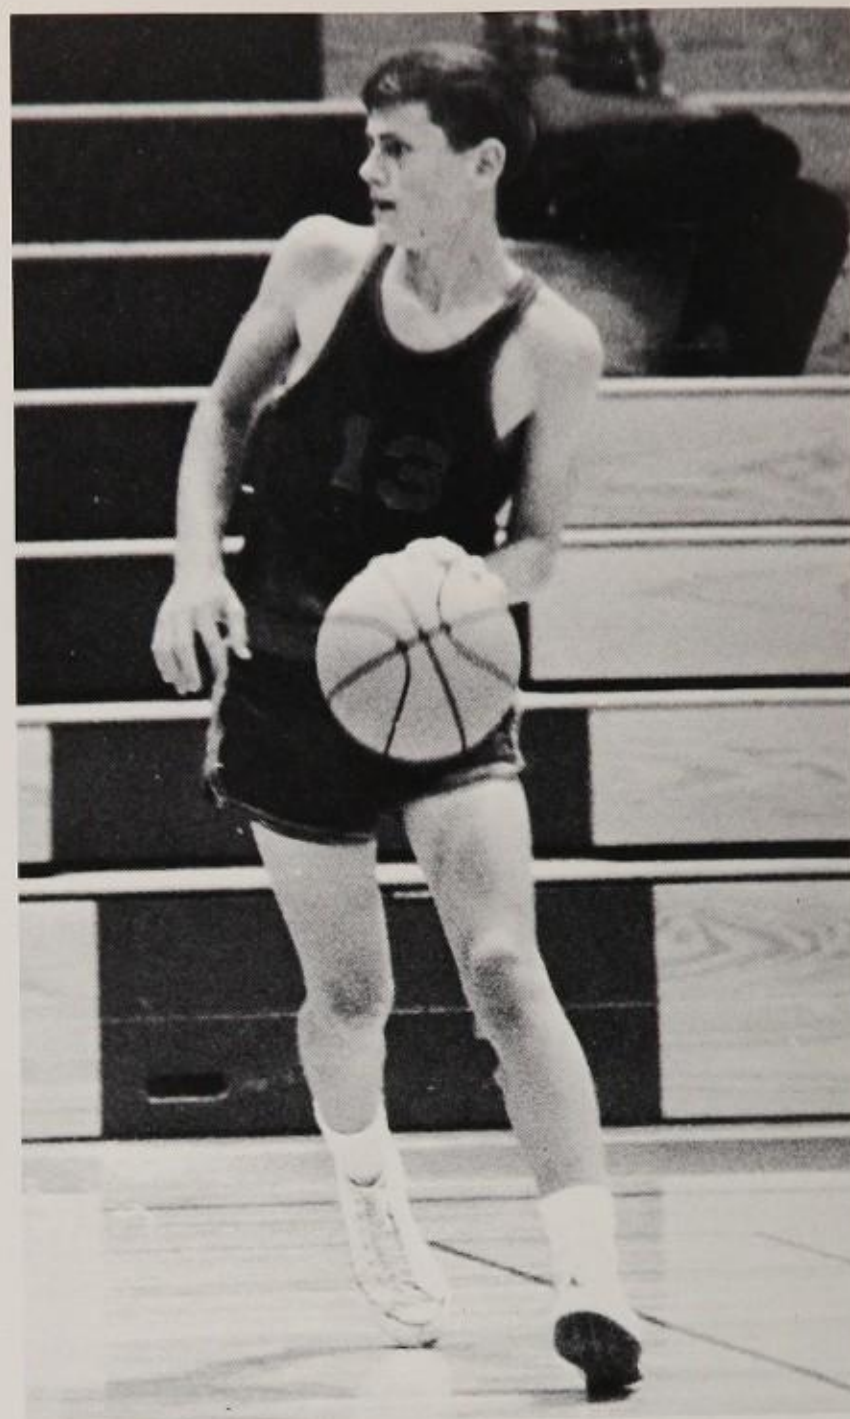

Palmetto forward Kelly MacTaggart and center Clark Beggs grabbed rebound from South Dade's Loveland and Brantley in fourth period.

Junior Varsity Cagers Ended Year With Disappointing 10-10 Record

J V Coach Dave Camper racked up an even season ending with a 10-10 record. In order of highest scoring, the six best players were Carl Lindgren, Wayne Huggins, Dirk Jacobs, Bob Ammarell, Mervin Bennett, and Paul Teichert. String backmen were guards Gary Lunson, Fletcher Shirley, and Ronnie Powell; forwards Pete Mooy and Remon Rainford; and pivot position Gary Young.

A new zone press, first used by junior varsity was also used effectively by the varsity roundballers. The team beat Jackson, Central, Hialeah, Southwest, Miami Springs twice, South Dade twice, Coral Park twice, and Coral Gables twice. J V lost to Coral Park, Curley, Jackson, Southwest, Miami High, Columbus twice, Miami Beach twice, and number one ranked Key West in the last game of the season. In that game the Baby Panthers led by 8 points going into the last quarter, but lost by 6 points, 60-54. Although the team only had an even season, experience was gained for future games.

Senior golfer John Hacker sank a chip shot while in competition. John was consistently a medalist in matches and was number one player.

Linksmen Finished Successful Year Crowned by Gold Coast Champions

Ending their season with a win over Miami High, the Panther golfers clinched the Gold Coast Conference title posting the best record in the history of Palmetto golf teams. The linksmen were undefeated in competition.

Medalists awards went to John Hacker, John Hoehl, Bruce Mees, and Mike Miller. John Hacker, team captain, was also the team's most outstanding player.

Daily practice at the team's home course, Palmetto Country Club, was supervised by Coach Sam Scheltzer.

By attending regular bowling practices, Senior Chris Jensen was able to improve her form. Chris bowled as a varsity member for 3 years.

Both Boys' and Girls' Team Bowled High in Southern Division Playoff

For the first time, both bowling teams were in the Southern Division playoffs. The girls' team bowled the county high game of 907. Mike Popp, the only junior boy on the team, led with a 189 average for 26 games. In second place was Tim Toal, 181 for 23 games. David Bethea bowled in third place with a 171 average for 26 games. On the girls' team, Chris Jensen led with an average of 169 for 25 games. Close behind was Barbara Williams with a 168 for 24 games. Missy McAfee was in third place with a 159 average for 25 games.

Both boys' and girls' teams bowled in matches against Coral Gables, South Dade, Southwest, Hialeah, North Miami, Norland, Miami Beach, and Miami High. Captain of the girls' team was Bonnie Stewart. Boys' team captain was Rick Piro. By attending regular bowling practices at the Bowl-O-Mat, team members were able to improve their timing. History teacher Winston Clark acted as coach and emphasized the value of rythmical precision.

BOWLING TEAM COACH MR. WINSTON CLARKE OFFERED HELPFUL SUGGESTIONS TO TEAM MEMBERS DURING PRACTICE.

Underclass Dominated Diamondmen Possessed with Definite Potential

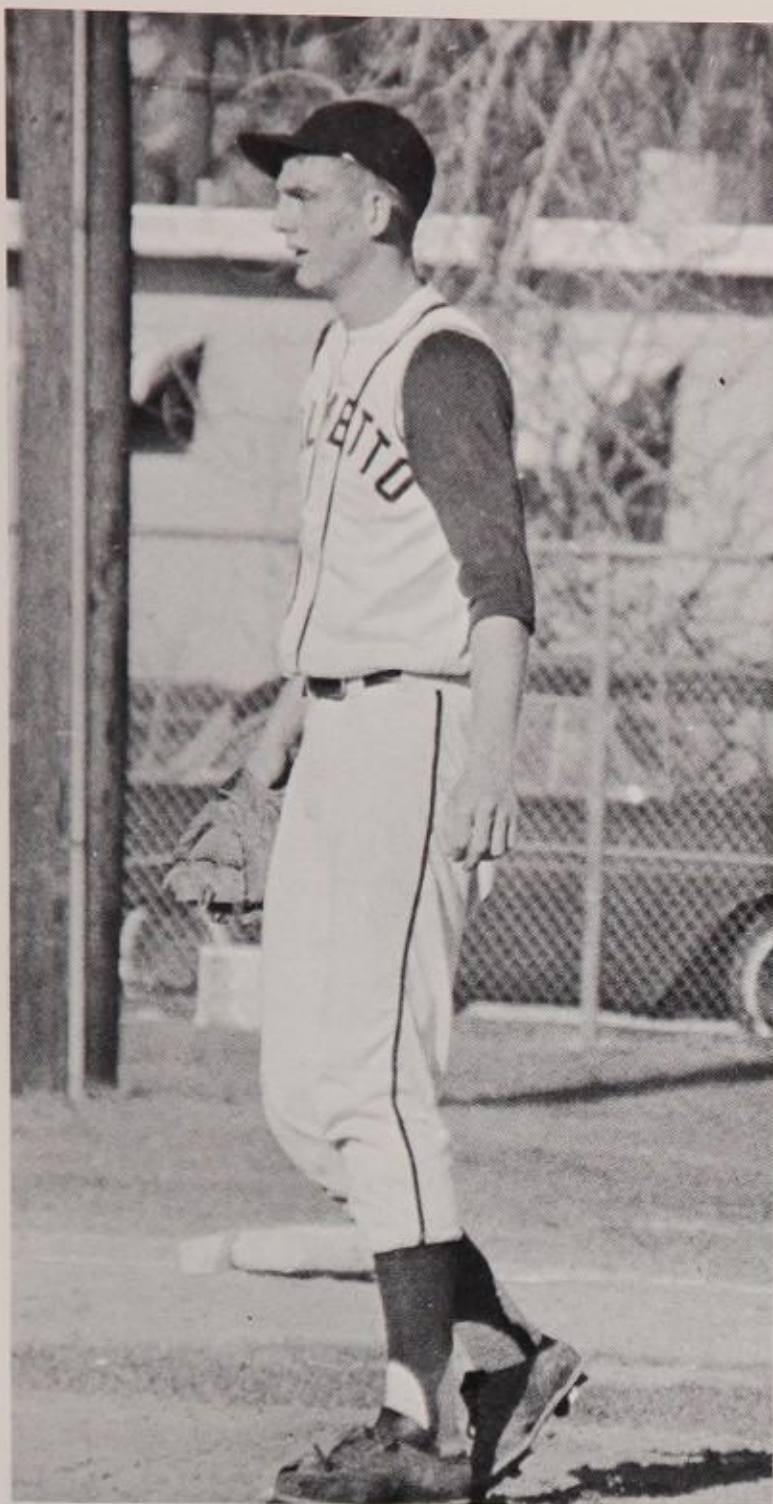

Pitching strength and junior class depth were the features of the Panther baseball team. The diamondmen pursued a 16 game schedule under the coaching direction of Walt Chwalik.

Six starters were underclassmen, including first basemen Jim Yancey and Rick Howie, at second Pat Hall, in center field Rocky Doddridge, in left field Steve Woods, and Wayne Yancey in right. Pitchers included three juniors, Pat Martin, Lanny Drinkuth, and Wayne Yancey, all of whom were in starting rotation. Opponents averaged less than two earned runs a game against pitchers.

Batting was the main shortcoming but it was counterbalanced by pitching talent. Against better opponents diamondmen found it hard to get more than a couple of hits. Rallies were few and consistency came from only a few, Evelio Yedo, shortstop, Bobby Orr, third base, and Wayne Yancey.

After a hit to right field, Evelio Yedo quickly moved in to catch a fly ball. Evelio's talent was valuable in the field and at the plate.

Southpaw Pat Martin, junior, walked confidently out to the pitchers' mound to warm up for the following inning.

Senior diamondman Bruce Huff singled to left field in an afternoon game. Consistent hitting and pitching ability combined to make Bruce an asset to the Panther team.

DIAMONDMEN IN THE OUTFIELD INCLUDED STEVE WOODS, MEL BERKOWITZ, REGGIE HANLON, AND ROCK DODDRIDGE.

Girls' Sports Teams Placed Second In County Track and Field Playoff

After eliminations and hours of practice, girls' sports teams were chosen to compete in volleyball, basketball, badminton, hockey, softball, track and field. Beginning with volleyball, the 'A' team placed third and the 'B' first in a tournament against South Dade and Coral Gables. On February 11, the teams hosted a basketball sports day and captured first place with the 'B' team; 'A' team placed second.

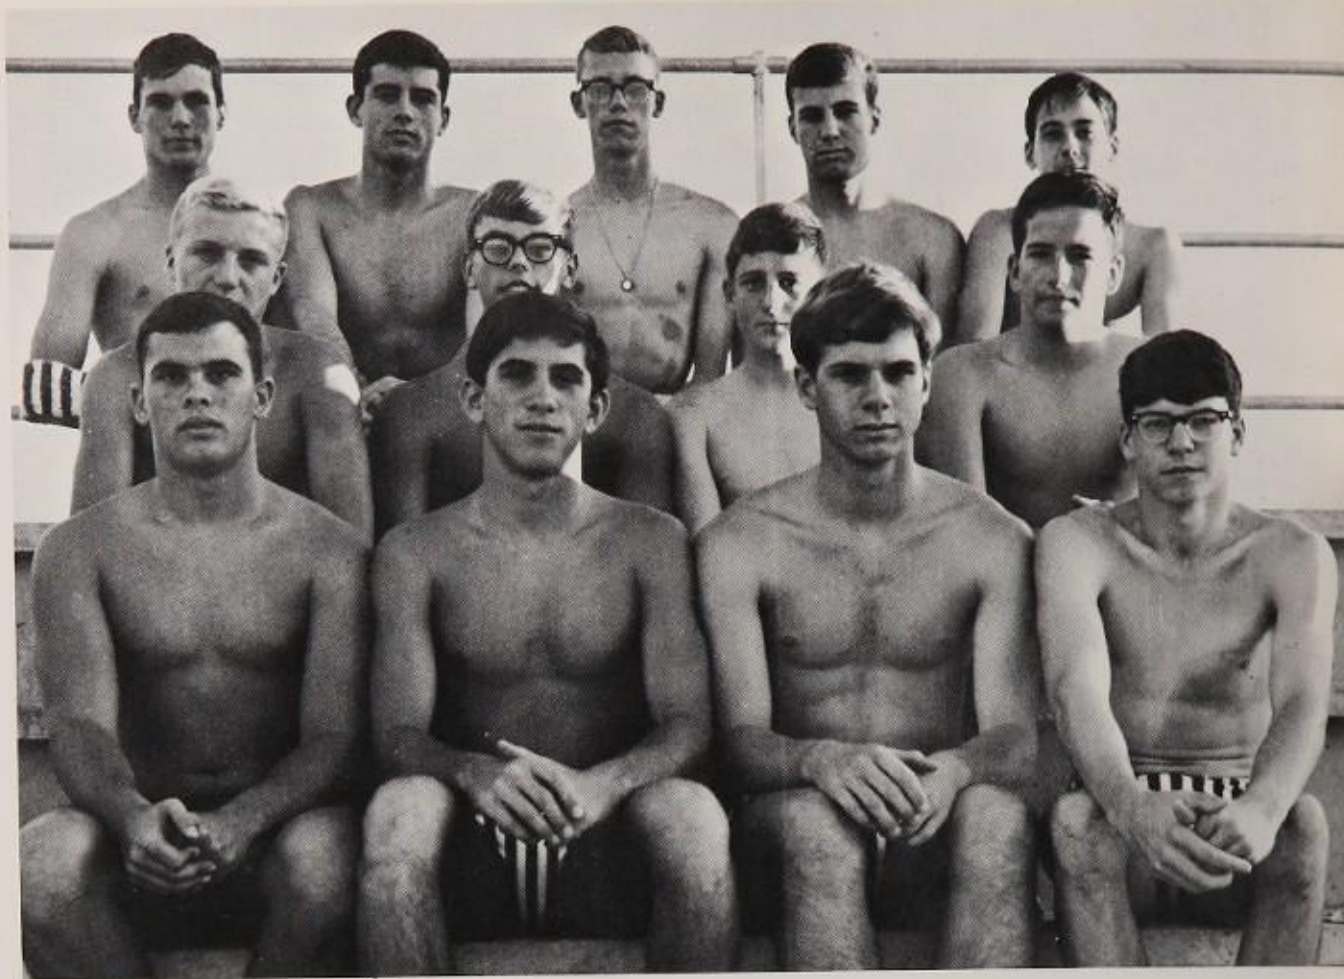

Girls' sports teams participated in a hockey match with Coral Gables on February 17. Both 'A' and 'B' teams won the softball tournament at Babcock Park against Miami High, Carver, and Jackson. On May 12-13, the teams competed with two other schools in a badminton sports day. In the county track and field playoffs, the teams placed second, defeating all competing schools except first place Northwestern.

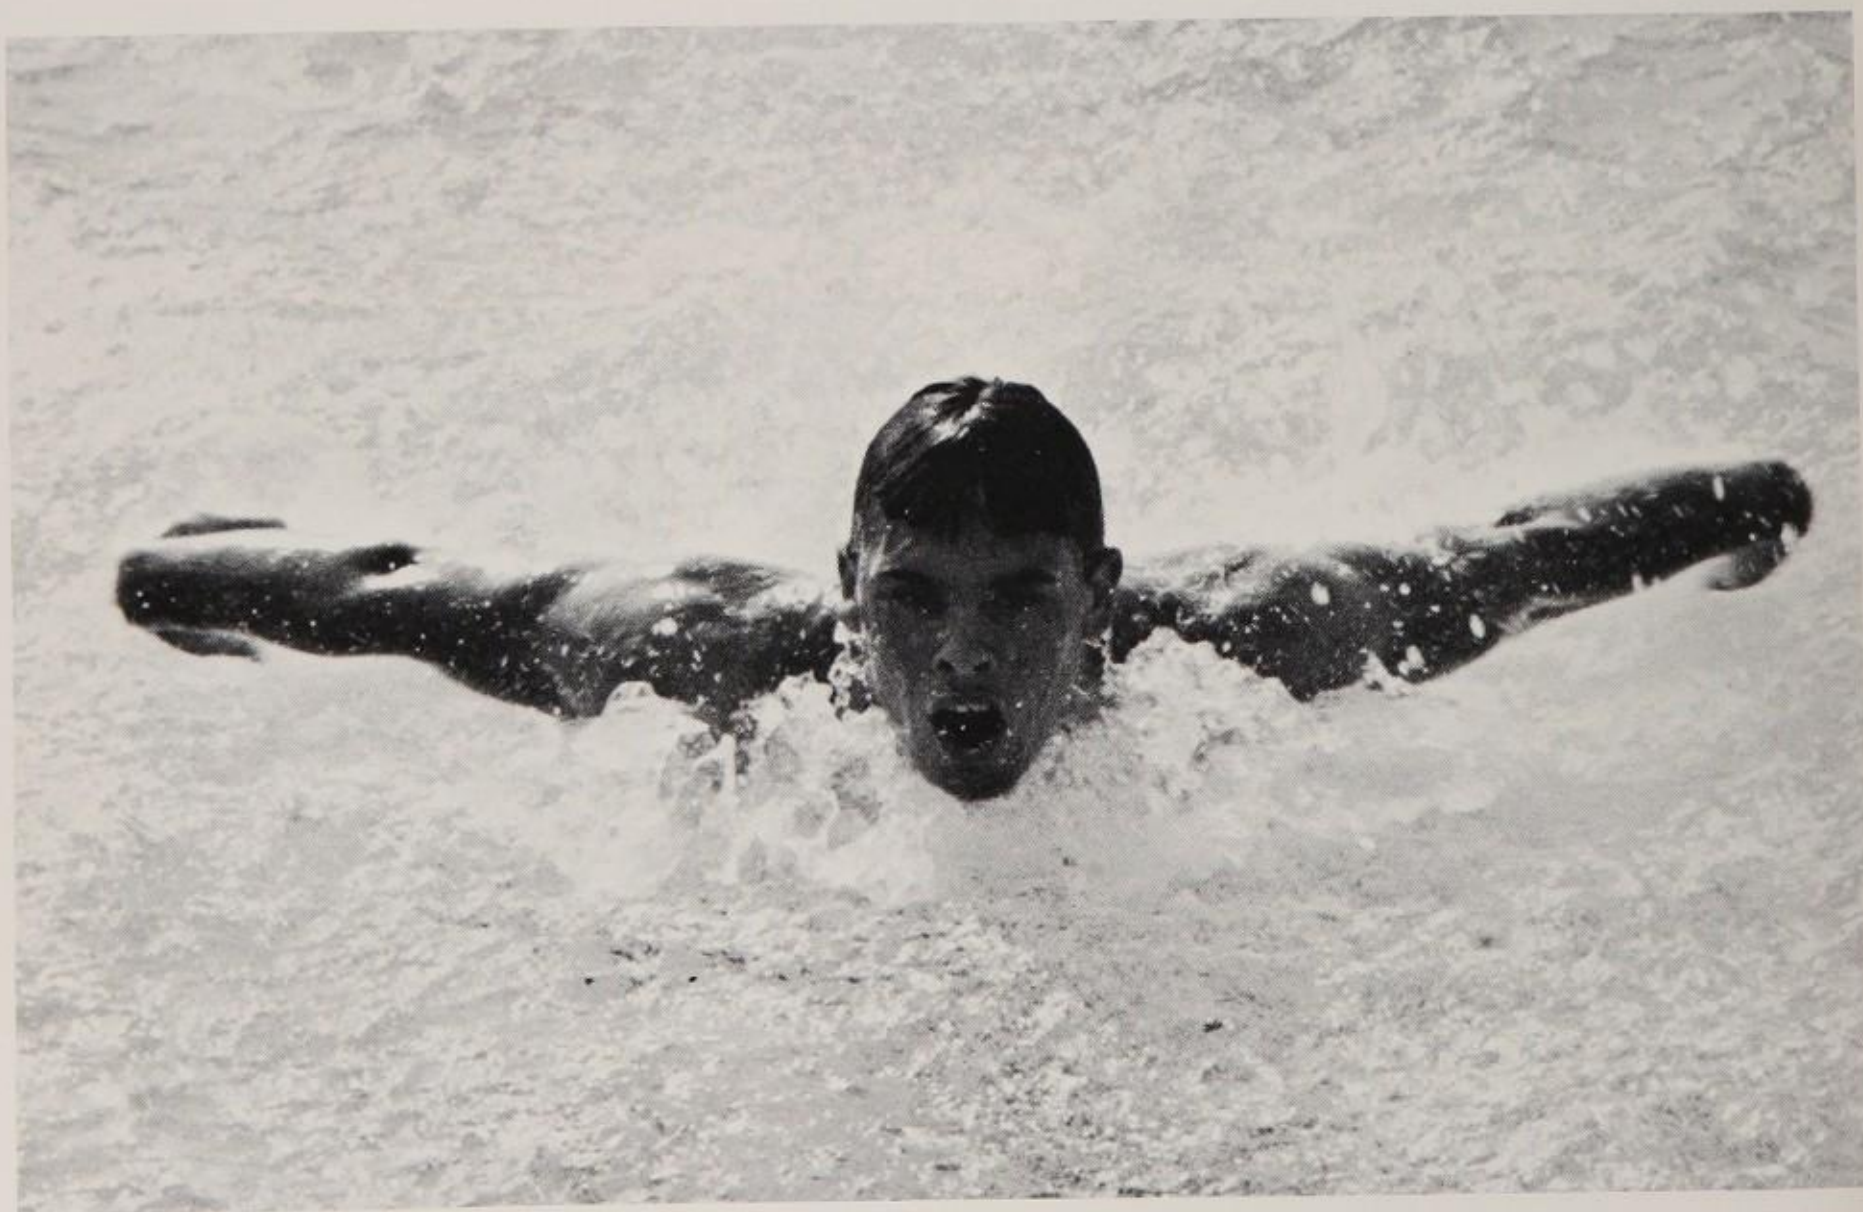

Betty Jones struggled to overtake her opponents in track and field playoff. The team placed second in the county.

Boys' and Girls' Swimming Squads Establish Nine New Team Records

Nine out of twenty swimming team records were broken when the boys' team ran up a 5-2 standing and girls' 5-1. All team losses came against Broward County Schools. Coach Errol Seegers attributed this to the fact that Broward schools have their own pools. Only Miami Springs had better team timings. Teams were invited to Woodson Invitational, Gold Coast Conference, District Seven Championship, and State Championship. Captains were Ethel Kirchimer and Larry Seitlin.

Don Burton, Lee Hunter, Ken Lyne, and Terry Kayser set a record of 1:51.2 in the 200 yard medley relay. Jay Chanley swam the 20 yard freestyle in 1:58.2. and the 400 yard freestyle in 4:16.7. In the 50 yard freestyle, Ken Lyne set a record of 23.8 and Lee Hunter set a record of 1:07.2 in the 100 yard breast stroke.

The team of Pat Berryman, Sue Forbes, Sharon Reid, and Sue Morrison set a record of 2:12.5 in the 200 yard medley relay. Sue Morrison swam the 200 yard freestyle in 2:23.0 and the 400 yard freestyle in 5:10.8. In the 200 yard medley, Sue Forbes swam in 2:44.2 and Pat Berryman set a team record of 1:16.0 for the 100 yard fly.

Girls included first row: Ethel Kirchimer, Sue Forbes; second row: Sue Gaylor, Linda Harper, Lane Hurst, Lynn Thompson; third row: Marsha Berkely, Sue Morrison, Pat Barryman, Connie McAdams, Sharon Reed.

Placing third in the Gold Coast Tennis Championship playoff, the boys' team beat number one ranked Coral Gables. All matches were won except Columbus, Curley, and Miami Beach. Sophomore Steve Zank placed in number one position. In second place was Greg Thompson; Ben McLeod ranked number three; Brad Miller fourth and Tom McLeod fifth. Practice at Royal Palm Tennis Club proved valuable to members of both boys' and girls' teams. Coach Russ High offered suggestions to improve serving and returning skills.

Lynn McLamore led the girls' team in first place. In second place was Allison Howard. Jean Powers and sophomore Nancy Duckworth ranked third and fourth, respectively. Ellen Zank was number five on the starting team. Nancy Duckworth remained undefeated in singles matches.

Senior Greg Thompson served ball to opponent during practice at Royal Palm Court. Three year's experience placed Greg number two.

Regular practice sessions at Royal Palm courts contributed to team success. Experienced letterman Bruce Miller played in singles and doubles matches.

Senior letterman Tom Hutchins used three years' track experience to team's advantage on the relay team and short distance.

Track Coach John Patsy wished relay runner Leslie Miller good luck at a track meet. Leslie also participated in the high jump and field events.

Elected captain by track team members, Cliff Kunde exerted speed and endurance while running the mile.

Pole vaulter Robert Dowd waited to jump. Consistently winning his event added to team's success.

Cindermen Found Their Experience Valuable in State-Wide Competition

Definite potential was apparent in Panther cindermen, as experience proved to be their backbone. Coach John Patsy headed a team which boasted strong individual and team talent.

Outstanding track men were paced by senior Tom Hutchins, who was most reliable for added points during meets. Tom ran the 220, 330, 440, and participated in the relay teams. Robert Dowd scored as Palmetto's lone pole vaulter. Hurdles were run by Charlie Murdock.

In the weight events, Hugh Penn took up the shot put while Sam Evans handled the discus. Clarence Duke's speed was valuable to the team. Lane Kauffmann set records in broad-jumping while Leslie Miller starred in the high jumps.

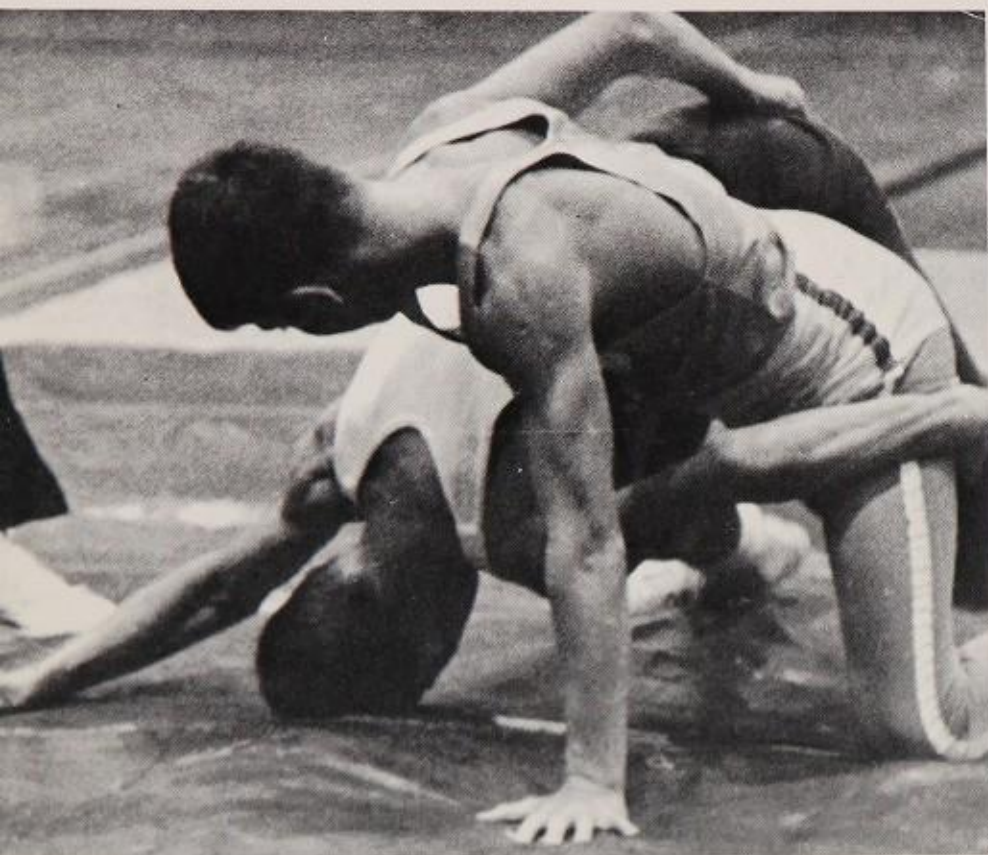

Highlighting the Flying L's track meet, was the record setting sprint medley team, Tom Hutchins, Bill Brant, Clarence Dukes, and Leslie Miller. Their 1:59.7 time set back previous scores.

School records were broken when 8 team members traveled to Gainesville for a state meet. They placed second out of 82 high schools. Tom Hutchins, Bill Brant, Clarence Dukes, and Leslie Miller took first places in the mile relay (3:25) and 880 yd. run (1:29.5).

Cliff Kunde, who specialized in the quarter mile, and Lane Kauffmann were elected co-captains of the cindermen.

Junior Bob Halcrow took down his opponent to the mat and pinned him scoring five points towards victory for the team.

Panther Warren Miller was awarded a decision and beat his opponent. Throughout the wrestling season Warren remained undefeated in meets.

RUSS SELTENRIGHT PRESSED ADVANTAGE ON HIS MCARTHUR OPPONENT. HE WAS AWARDED A DECISION.

Panther Matmen Gained Confidence; Dobbins Finished As GCC Champion

Ending with an even 3-3 standing, Palmetto grapplers came within three points of the number one team in the county, McArthur, in their most exciting meet of the season. Kerri Tresback, Russ Seltenright, Jon Montieth, Warren Miller, Mike Gleman, and Joe Vick pinned or decisioned their men to add to the score. Faced off against a mammoth opponent, Don Dobbins battled to a third period pin, but the comeback fell short and Panther matmen lost 24-27.

Only two losses marred a sweep of every weight class in the wrestling meet against Jackson. Confidence was the key to victory over South Broward. Six pins, a team record, were instrumental as the final score was 36-14. Third ranked in the Gold Coast conference, Curley dealt the team a loss. It was another close one for the (3-2) grapplers, 33-22.

Individual records, rather than the team record, was the highlight of the season. Warren Miller remained undefeated in competition. Junior Don Dobbins was crowned with the Gold Coast Championship title for the heavyweight class.

SENIORS

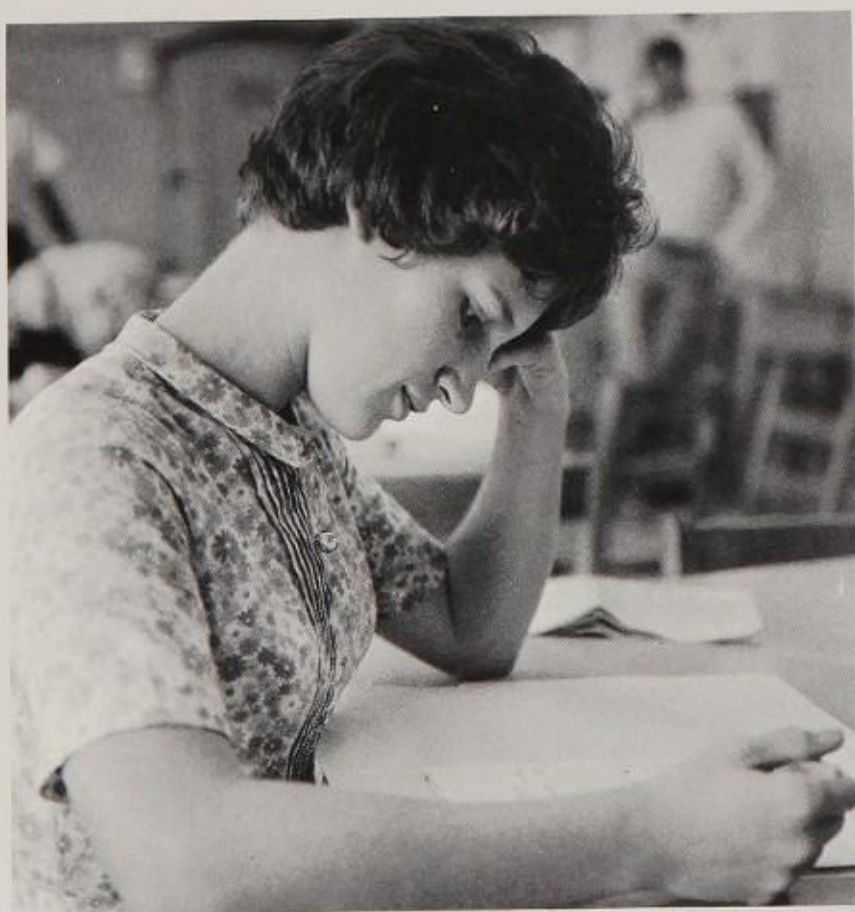

SENIOR CLASS

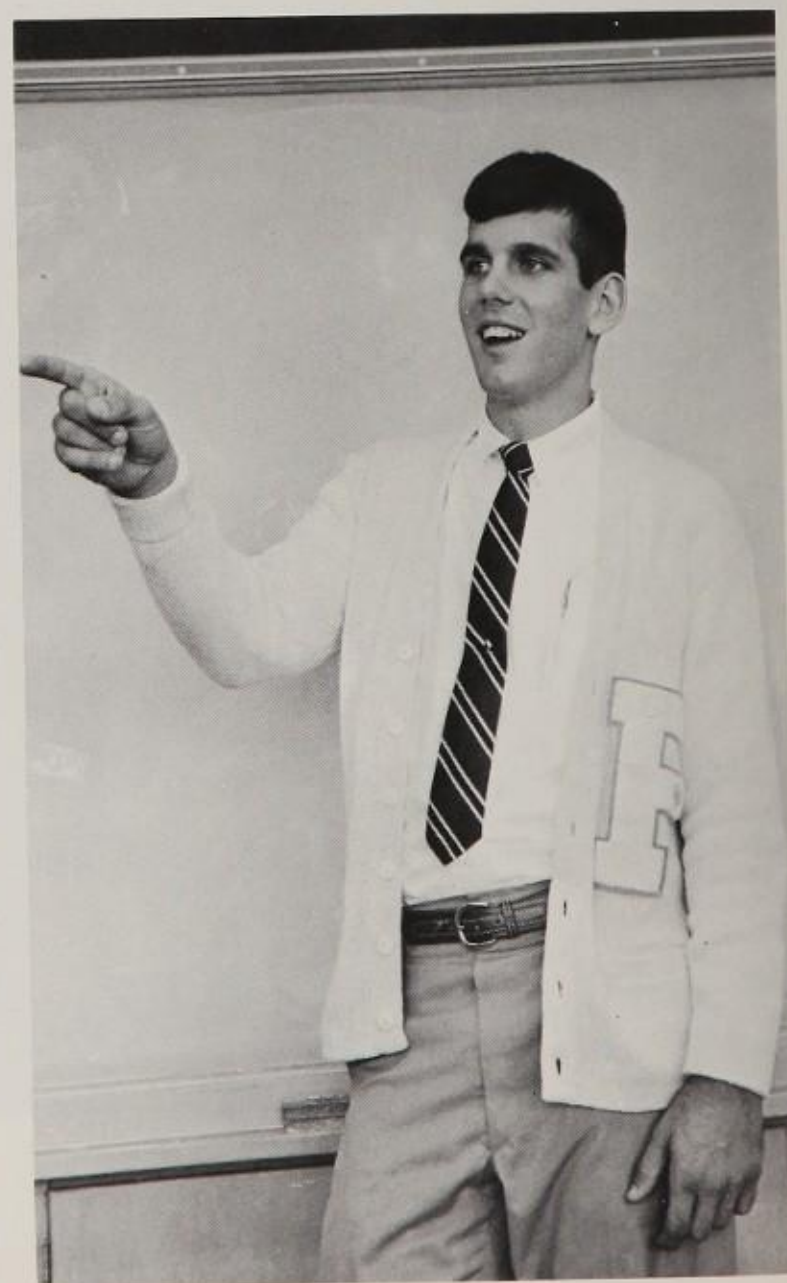

Sue Murphy successfully fulfilled her job as senior class treasurer using her pencil, checkbook and receipts. Senior Class Play and Stunt Nite provided funds for projects.

Vice President Sherry Poston assisted the president by typing necessary ICC and senior project reports.

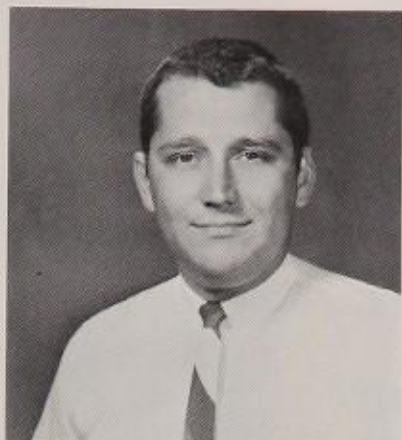

Secretary of the class for two years, Diane Taylor checked the minutes. Experience was valued in instituting senior projects.

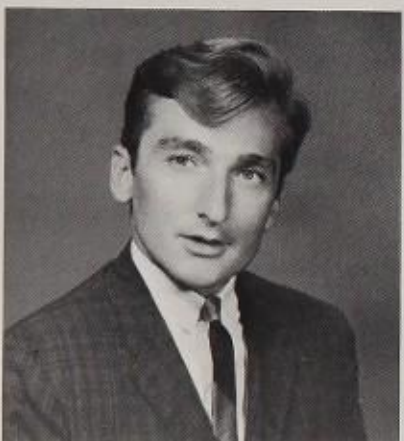

Class President Dennis Boothe answered a question about endorsement of the Senior Privileges initiated this year.

Seniors were active as they supported after-school sock hops and dances. In the first six weeks after the senior board was elected, the class began planning its traditional Senior Stunt Nite, which featured a greater versatility of acts and talent than in any previous year. Class President Dennis Boothe directed seniors in two school dress-up days.

Academically oriented seniors were tapped for National Honor Society at a solemn candlelight ceremony. Placement tests needed for acceptance to Florida state universities were administered and seniors anxiously awaited replies from these schools, and colleges and universities across the nation.

Homecoming, in addition to the prom, was a highlight of the school year. Queen Sue O'Connor reigned over the court and seniors elected princesses were Molly Bunnell, Janice Christmas, June McElmoyle and Karin Ostlund. One of the fads started by seniors was the wearing of wing tip shoes which tied and were perforated at the tops. The senior play offered its cast an opportunity to display dramatic talents. Bringing activities to an end were college acceptances, job placement and graduation exercises. With the class of 1967 serving as host, seniors bid farewell at the junior-senior prom.

14 Seniors Added to Hall of Fame As Faculty Cast Deciding Ballots

Fourteen outstanding seniors nominated by department heads and elected by the faculty were named to the 1966 Hall of Fame. Leadership, scholarship and citizenship were qualities considered in selection. Each of the students contributed to the success of the senior class. Services rendered in previous years were also considered. Members of Hall of Fame demonstrated ability in all phases of school and community affairs.

Quill and Scroll, journalism honorary, framed pictures of the honorees to be displayed in the trophy case. The tradition was started in 1965 and was continued to permanently recognize members of the Hall of Fame.

28 Student Leaders Elected Senior Favorites on Basis of Achievement

To recognize its outstanding members, the senior class elected 28 students as "Senior Favorites." The number was increased from last year's 24 members, to accommodate a larger class.

Senior favorites replaced senior superlatives in order to recognize students who developed well rounded extra-curricular records. Past leadership and service to school and community activities throughout senior high school years was the basis of selection. Citizenship and leadership qualities combined with versatile talents including music, art, athletic and scholarship abilities are represented by those selected favorites.

14 Students Vied In Miami Herald County-Wide Silver Knight Contest

Fourteen seniors selected on the basis of scholarship, service to school and community and excellence in a specific area entered the county-wide Silver Knight contest.

Competition, sponsored by the Miami Herald, opened two new categories. Industrial Arts included home economics and division of drama was expanded to a speech category.

Candidates first completed a primary application submitted to the school Silver Knight Committee, headed by Mrs. Shirley Newman. A representative of each department selected the student for each category.

After school nominees faced personal interviews awards were announced at Dade County Auditorium on May 12.

JUNIOR OFFICERS

Susie Hill, as class treasurer, deposited checks and made financial reports. Her main job was to collect money orders during the February magazine drive.

President Pat Hall and Secretary Anita Oaks listened to a Magazine Representative explain procedures. Class projected $2,300 profit.

Vice President Patsy Snelling filed activities schedules. She helped the president at board meetings and represented the class at ICC meetings.

Juniors Sponsored Magazine Drive To Finance Prom, Class Activities

Scoring a first place in Panther Prowl skit competition at Homecoming, the junior class began a project filled year. Members of the "class that's reven, senior class of '67," rallied together as they raised over $1500 in the annual magazine sale. Funds were used for the junior-senior prom, traditionally sponsored by the junior class. Money not used was transferred to finance projects next year.

Academic life changed for juniors as they found their schedules included television or classroom American history, chemistry and team teaching English. Reading lists grew as Huckleberry Finn, April Morning, The Great Gatsby, My Antonia, and The Crucible were added. Modern dance was offered to girls instead of regular physical education.

Through the class board composed of one representative from each junior homeroom, the class initiated projects. Representing juniors on the Homecoming Court were Pat McLaughlin, Susie Hill and Linda Howard. Class sponsors guided the class with suggestions and chaperoned work sessions and dances. Sponsors were Mr. Dexter Barlow, Mr. James High, Mrs. Marlene Lindquist and Mrs. Anabel Withers. Officers were Pat Hall, president; Patsy Snelling, vice president; Anita Oaks, secretary; and Susie Hill, treasurer.

Sophomores Adjusted to Late Shift, TV Class and Drivers' Education

In sophomore elections, 1300 students elected Student Council senators and class officers. The largest class in the eight year history chose Steve Johnston, president; Barry Abbott, vice president; Chris Criswell, secretary; and Peggy Crook, treasurer. Homecoming, Girls' Council Winter Wonderland Dance, TV Biology and English, and Drivers' Education highlighted the sophomore's first year in high school. Representing the Class of '68 at Homecoming were princesses Patty Iversen and Ginny Smith.

As treasurer, it was Peggy Cook's responsibility to keep sophomore financial records. She also helped to make plans with other officers.

President Steve Johnston and Vice President Barry Abbott reviewed future activities on the agenda and discussed fund raising projects.

Secretary Chris Criswell recorded executive and class board minutes. Sophomore board consisted of representatives from each homeroom.

Barry Abbott was congratulated by Bud Bailey after winning class vice presidency. Senators were also chosen in the elections.

Now you're ready to face the cold, cold world.

If you stay right here in sunny Florida, you'll have a choice of scores of fine colleges. And, you'll avoid the cold, cold world.

But if you decide to go North or West, good luck to you. And remember, National also flies South and East, when you want to come home.

Is this any way to run an airline?

You bet it is.

During Prowl Activities, juniors placed first with their portrayal of South Dade High. They sang a rendition of South Dade's Alma Mater.

Palmetto students supported their football team with a record during football season. The band spurred player and crowd enthusiasm.

After high school
...what direction?

A solid educational background becomes increasingly important in getting and holding a good job and enjoying a better way of life.

A college diploma is an investment that will continue to pay dividends. College grads can expect to out-earn high school graduates by 70%.

Florida's universities, colleges and junior colleges are in a period of unprecedented growth, both academically and physically. The college of your choice can prove to be your best friend.

Whatever you decide to do...good luck, best wishes, and more power to you.

Ode to a Volkswagen . . .

*This year turned out to be my best year my year average was 1.610 Hal 98a!
The sole purpose of writing this is so that in 20 yrs. or so I'll be able to a success I can look at people, point to this and say "... see what a crumb I was as a kid" 3-23-61*

A little grey Volkswagen, carpeted with wall-to-wall carbon paper, upholstered in blue ruled layout sheets and containing three typewriters, manuscript paper, piles of pictures and empty coke cups, plates from former steak and cheese sandwiches, chauffeured the 1966 PALM ECHO and its staff.

The convertible top slid back as staffers managed to succumb and escape the yearbook. Relief trips carried weary workers to occasional Sunday afternoon visits to Mary's. Little idiosyncracies . . . dill pickle and sausage odors flowing throughout work rooms . . . piercing screams and rash arguments erupting due to the pressure of meeting deadlines . . . little notes mailed special delivery to Foote and Davies calmly stating an error and enclosing the correct copy . . . to the working staff arrows meant flat tires . . . fun in watering plants . . . eating lunch in Hollywood . . . eating dinner twice . . . how many more captions until we can go to bed? . . . All their remarks of memories filled with laughter, sadness and disappointment . . . joy . . . to the working staff, the editor's personal thanks are extended for their continual assistance.

Moment to moment we awaited the return of our first proofs. In our spare time we managed to meet our parents. We would like to express our appreciation for the kindness of the staff's parents. Without them working time out of school would have been impossible.

We would like to give special notice to Mr. David McShane of the United States Post Office, Kendall, Florida, for his smiling face when we neglected to paste the ends closed because we allotted one minute wrapping time and three minutes to get to the post office before it closed at 5:00.

Producing the yearbook was a new experience, and its success can be marked only by giving credit where it is most deserved. To Mrs. Mary Griffith, our adviser, we owe the quality of perfection she instilled in us. Many times we would rewrite copy, recrop pictures and redraw layouts because of her reminders.

To Mr. Harrell Brooks, publishing representative for Foote and Davies in Atlanta, Georgia, we can only mutter humble apologies for our errors and thank him for his concern for the staff and the production of a quality yearbook. Since none of the staff was experienced this year he instructed them in all phases of yearbook planning and production.

The doors of an editor's car, pages of a book, the year of a high school closed . . . the record, the 1966 PALM ECHO . . .

Have loads of fun in your Union
year and ones.

Maybe someday
I'll take you on a pool. I'd better learn how to hold a cue stick first. huh?

Kew,
my best
I Jordanian friend!!
All the best of luck in Dago-Dago (Italy) land! Don't forget that I'm in your room writing this letter(?)
& it just might be the last time (I doubt it) that we ever correspond. Just keep knockin' 'em dead wherever you go & don't forget the

To a real great guy. Kenning you a good friend and I hope we can be good friends forever. Things are kind of rough now but it will pan out all right. Well we are big seniors now and it won't be long untill we get to hell out school. Thank God. I know you will do good in college because ~~it~~ it won't be like the crap in High School. You a smart kid but you just don't utilize it and you skirt around to much. Remember last year when I said I'd beat you in golf well I did so there! I am glad you going to Palmetto this year. I think if you left and went to a new school it would screw you up more than you are now and that's pretty bad. (just kidding) I hope in the future we will remain good friends no matter what happens. So good luck (because you'll need it you see) and hope someday we will be the great friends we always have been.
you, buddy

This yearbook was not distributed until one week after school was dismissed for the year. This explains the lack of signatures
